LEO BUENO AND LEO BUENO ATTORNEY, P.A., v. CITY OF CORAL GABLES

Circuit Court – General Jurisdiction Division – Case No. 09-30619 CA 30

Plaintiffs filed for declaratory judgment after the Code Enforcement Board issued a guilty finding for violation of the City Code Sec. 66-21 and 101.168 for failure to pay local business tax for 2008-2009 for which a fine was imposed, and alleges that the City does not have authority to assess a penalty charge on such business tax to attorneys, and seeking to certify this as a class action on behalf of fellow attorneys practicing in the City. Court approved agreed order to stay proceedings pending final resolution of the appeal in Addison class certification case currently before the District Court of Appeal for the Second District of Florida.

CITY OF CORAL GABLES V. QUANTUM LEAP NETWORK, INC.

Circuit court – General Jurisdiction Division – Case No. 09-17991 CA 27

In March of 2009, the City filed its complaint for specific performance of a license agreement for failure of Quantum Leap Network to complete the process to transfer the domain name, www.venetianpool.com, to the City of Coral Gables. The City has amended its complaint to include claims that a new domain name used by Quantum Leap, www.coralgablesvenetianpool.com, violates the City's trademark rights and constitutes unfair competition. The City has also added as individual defendants Robert Burr and Robin Burr for their participation in these wrongful acts which include the use of the City's service marks to promote their individual businesses. The defendants have retained Joel Hirschhorn and Bennett Hirschhorn to represent them. The depositions of David Brown, Robert Burr and Robin Burr have been taken. A settlement proposal, subject to Commission approval, has been communicated to the defendants and we await their response. The defendants have asked the court to refer the case to non-binding mediation.

CITY OF TAMPA v. MICHAEL C. ADDISON and RICHARD T. PETITT

13th Judicial Circuit in and for Hillsborough County – Case No. 03-5425; Florida Supreme Court – Case No. SC 07-2198; Second District Court of Appeal – Case No. 06-3168; Second District Court of Appeal – Case No. 09-2059

The Second District Court of Appeal certified a defendant class of all cities and counties in the State with an occupational license tax. Tampa filed an appeal challenging the certification of the defendant class on the basis that significant differences between different cities' and counties' occupational license fee ordinances make it inappropriate for a court to treat all ordinances alike. The Florida League of Cities put together a consortium of cities and retained an appellate attorney, with Coral Gables participating as a named party in the filing of an amicus brief to insure that the City's interests are properly represented in this case. The amicus brief was filed October 9, 2006. Oral Argument was heard April 10, 2007. An opinion was rendered by the 2nd District Court of Appeal affirming the order of class certification. Tampa sought further review from the Florida Supreme Court on the class certification. Since the Florida Supreme Court refused to hear the appeal, the matter is back at the trial court level. The City will continue to defend Coral Gables' interests and support the on-going litigation along with the League and other municipalities which stand to be adversely affected in this decision. The Second District Court of Appeal ruled in our favor in the Addison "attorney/business tax" putative class action case pending in Hillsborough County. Plaintiffs' class counsel tried to sue all cities and counties in Florida in a "non-opt out" defendant class in Hillsborough County and to obtain a res judicata judgment that each local government's business tax against attorneys was unconstitutional. The trial judge had granted our motion and had dismissed all non- Hillsborough local governments from the defendant class and the appeal ensued. The 2nd DCA affirmed in all respects the trial court's order dismissing the non-Hillsborough defendant class members. Following the logic of our brief and argument, the Court held that: (a) the Home Venue Privilege is absolute and does not have a "defendant class action" exception unless created by the Supreme Court or Legislature; (b) each putative member of the defendant class (i.e. your city) is a "party" for the purposes of interposing its individual Home Venue Privilege and has a due process right to assert it. Plaintiff counsel will likely file a request for rehearing (perhaps en banc) and reconsideration within the next 15 days. After that, we expect them to attempt to appeal to the Florida Supreme Court. But the well-reasoned 9 page opinion by the Second DCA renews our confidence that our arguments will prove equally persuasive to the Florida Supreme Court should it take up the appeal.

The Court denied the motion for summary judgment and indicated that the case should be set for trial. Plaintiffs are now represented by Andrew Dickman, Esq. KUVIN v. CITY OF CORAL GABLES

Third District Court of Appeal – Case No. 3D05-2845
Circuit Court – Appellate Division – Case No. 03-8911-AP;

Petitioner filed a Petition for Writ of Certiorari seeking a permanent injunction and damages to prohibit the City from enforcing the provisions of its code, arising from a citation which Petitioner received for parking his truck in violation of the Coral Gables Zoning Code Section 8-11 and 8-12. The Court, in a ruling rendered October 14, 2005, granted the City's motion for summary judgment and upheld the constitutionality of the City's truck ordinance. The Plaintiff filed a Notice of Appeal with the Third District Court of Appeal, and the City has filed a Motion to Dismiss. The Court dismissed the appeal for failure of Kuvin to comply with the court's November 10, 2005 order. Upon payment of the filing fee, the appeal was reinstated. Kuvin has filed his initial brief in the district court of appeal, and the City filed its answer brief on Sept. 28. Kuvin has to file his reply brief. The court heard oral argument on Tuesday, November 14, 2006 before JJ. Schwartz, Cortinas and Rothenberg. Decision entered August 22, 2007, reversing with directions to enter declaratory judgment for appellant and to vacate the guilty determination of the hearing officer, with J. Rothenberg dissenting with a comprehensive separate opinion. The City has filed with the Third District Court of Appeal a Motion for Rehearing En Banc and a Motion requesting the Court to certify this case to the Florida Supreme Court as a matter of great public importance. The City has filed with the Third District Court of Appeal a Motion for Rehearing en Banc and Motion for Certification to the Florida Supreme Court as a matter of great public importance.
