PERSONAL APPEARANCES

Dayron Garcia and Jorge Pino from the Development Services department

-These gentlemen spoke about a new mobile permitting service that the city is now offering for certain citizens in particular cases. Jorge made us aware of a newly updated, easy to use website with access to all the information on the new service offered. Dayron Garcia, the City's Building Director, also mentioned that our new Adult Activity Center is fully ADA Accessible, after his latest review.

Kathy Sarmiento from the Alliance For Aging

-Kathy Sarmiento came in to talk about SHINE, an organization that gives free & unbiased information about health insurance and medical care providers. She mentioned that the organization receives up to 50 calls a day for citizens of South Florida. Kathy Mentioned the waiting list of over 3000 seniors in South Florida waiting for assistance from her SHINE Program, or any program similar.

ADULT ACTIVITY COORDINATOR REPORT

-Letty spoke about the upcoming move to the new Adult Activity Center, at 2 Andalusia Ave. Also, she reported about upcoming programs and support groups, such as the Red Cross hurricane preparedness workshop, Diabetes support group, and the volunteer appreciation luncheon at Coral Gables Hospital.
