To the Clerk of Coral Gables,

I understand from Catherine Cathers that the Coral Gables Commission is meeting today regarding budget approvals, including funding for cultural activities presented by local groups for Coral Gables residents, businesses, and visitors. It's wonderful that the Commission invests in funding for the arts which adds greatly to the quality of life within the community. City Theatre is grateful for the Commission's support of City Theatre programming, including its longtime partnership with Books & Books for its various play reading series. We have delighted in bringing our work into the bookstore for more than two decades, to engage and entertain Coral Gables audiences, visitors, and book lovers with our presentations.

I would be sharing my thanks to the Commission directly today, but for a health emergency. That said, if the opportunity arises, please thank the Commission from City Theatre for the funding opportunity. If there are any questions, I hope Ms. Cathers will share these with me tomorrow. In the meantime, have a productive meeting, and thank you again.

Best,

Susan J. Westfall, Interim Executive Director
