A. PRESENTATIONS AND PROTOCOL DOCUMENTS

- A.-1. 25-9963 Presentation of a Proclamation declaring October 28, 2025 as "Coral Gables Crime Watch Program Day" in Coral Gables.

The City Commission recognized October 28, 2025, as Coral Gables Crime Watch Program Day, commemorating the 45th anniversary of the organization's founding in 1980. The proclamation was introduced by Commissioner Fernandez and supported by remarks from Mayor Lago, Vice Mayor Anderson, and other commissioners. Former Mayor Dorothy Thompson delivered a heartfelt historical account of the Crime Watch's origins, crediting Carol Fewell for initiating the idea during a time of heightened crime concerns following the Mariel Boatlift. She emphasized the skepticism the group initially faced from law enforcement and how it evolved into a respected and collaborative organization. The Crime Watch model in Coral Gables is unique in that it includes representatives from over 20 civic organizations, allowing for broad dissemination of safety information. Executive Director Anna Lam and President Aaron Glasser were recognized for their leadership. Anna Lam was praised for her tireless community outreach, grant writing, and presence at nearly every city event. Commissioners and staff highlighted her dedication to child and senior safety, and her ability to secure resources through partnerships with FDOT and other agencies. The proclamation detailed the organization's extensive programming, including CPR and self-defense classes, active shooter training, fraud prevention, and neighborhood safety presentations. The commission expressed gratitude to the Coral Gables Police Department, particularly Chief Ed Hudak and Sergeant Michelle Christensen, for their continued support.

Presentation of a Proclamation declaring October 29, 2025 as "Nicklaus Children's Hospital Day" in Coral Gables.

The City Commission proclaimed October 29, 2025, as Nicholas Children's Hospital Day in Coral Gables, in honor of the hospital's 75th anniversary. Arianna Urquia, representing the hospital, accepted the proclamation and spoke about the institution's legacy of pediatric excellence, innovation, and compassionate care. Mayor Lago delivered a deeply personal account of his own life-saving experience at the hospital as a child, when he underwent a complex kidney surgery. He credited Dr. Felix Ramirez and the hospital staff for saving his life and emphasized the hospital's importance to the community. The mayor expressed pride in the hospital's decision to relocate its administrative headquarters to Coral Gables, further strengthening its ties with the city. Commissioners and staff echoed the mayor's sentiments, highlighting the hospital's national recognition, its role as a beacon of hope for families, and the loving care provided by its staff. The proclamation acknowledged the hospital's evolution from Variety Children's Hospital to Miami Children's Hospital, and now Nicholas Children's, and celebrated its enduring impact on generations of South Florida families.

Presentation of a Proclamation declaring October 20-26, 2025 as "Florida City Government Week" in Coral Gables.

The City Commission proclaimed October 20-26, 2025, as Florida City Government Week in Coral Gables. The proclamation, read by Commissioner Fernandez, emphasized the importance of municipal government as the level of government closest to the people and the one with the most direct impact on daily life. City staff summarized the week's activities, which included a celebratory event featuring the Santo Dulce churro truck at City Hall and Public Works. The event served as a gesture of appreciation for city employees and an opportunity for staff to socialize and reflect on their contributions to the community. The proclamation recognized the Florida League of Cities for organizing the initiative and encouraged residents to learn more about how they can engage with and influence local government Presentation of a Proclamation declaring November 6, 2025 as "Celia Cruz Day" in Coral Gables.

The City Commission proclaimed November 6, 2025, as Celia Cruz Day in Coral Gables, in celebration of the centennial of the legendary Queen of Salsa. The proclamation coincides with the opening of the "Happy 100th Birthday Celia" exhibition at the Coral Gables Museum, curated by Alexis Rodríguez Duarte and Tico Torres, who were Celia's personal photographers. Elvis Fuentes, representing the museum, delivered remarks on Celia Cruz's cultural legacy, her exile from Cuba, and her deep ties to Coral Gables. He noted that her iconic "azúcar" catchphrase is believed to have originated in a Coral Gables restaurant and that many of her most famous photo shoots took place at the Biltmore Hotel and Fairchild Tropical Botanic Garden. Mayor Lago shared personal memories of meeting Celia Cruz through his involvement with La Liga Contra el Cáncer and praised her as a symbol of resilience, joy, and Cuban American identity. Commissioners Fernandez and Anderson also spoke about her global influence and the importance of preserving her legacy. The museum announced that the exhibition would be free to the public during Gallery Night on November 7, and that it would also launch a 50-year time capsule project to capture the city's current cultural moment.

Presentation of a Proclamation declaring November 15, 2025 as "America Recycles Day" in Coral Gables.

The City Commission proclaimed November 15, 2025, as America Recycles Day in Coral Gables. The proclamation highlighted the city's leadership in sustainability and waste reduction, including its award-winning Keep Coral Gables Beautiful program. The Sustainability Department, represented by staff and board members, reported that over the past five years, the city has hosted 270 events with more than 34,000 participants, collecting nearly 1 million pounds of litter. The city's biannual recycling drive-through events have diverted over 650,000 pounds of hazardous and electronic waste, paper, plastic bags, and clothing from landfills.
