A. PRESENTATIONS AND PROTOCOL DOCUMENTS

- A.-1. 26-1072 Presentation of a Certificate of Condolence to the bereaved family of Peter J. Dolara.

The Commission opened the Presentations and Protocol section with a solemn yet celebratory tribute to the late Peter J. DeLauro, a visionary leader whose contributions to Coral Gables and South Florida left an enduring legacy. Mayor Lago introduced the resolution of condolence, emphasizing Peter's remarkable career and personal qualities. The resolution detailed his pivotal role in transforming Miami International Airport into a premier global hub during his tenure as Senior Vice President for American Airlines, overseeing operations in Miami, the Caribbean, and Latin America. His leadership not only advanced the airline industry but also strengthened Coral Gables' position as a center for international business and connectivity. Beyond professional achievements, Peter was remembered as a humble mentor and philanthropist who supported numerous charitable organizations, including United Way and local nonprofits. Family members and colleagues shared heartfelt remarks, highlighting his generosity, vision, and commitment to community service. Representatives from American Airlines spoke about the economic impact of his work, which generated billions for South Florida and created thousands of jobs. Commissioners praised his influence on corporate and civic life, affirming that his legacy will continue to inspire future generations. The presentation concluded with a commemorative photo and expressions of gratitude from the DeLauro family.

Agenda Items A-2 and F-2 are related

- A.-2. 26-1045 Presentation of a Proclamation declaring "Ponce de Leon Middle School Day" in Coral Gables.

Vice Mayor Rhonda Anderson introduced a proclamation honoring the centennial year of Ponce de Leon Middle School, one of Coral Gables' oldest educational institutions. The proclamation traced the school's evolution from its founding as Ponce de Leon High School in the 1920s to its current status as an International Baccalaureate Middle Years Program, nationally recognized for academic excellence and innovation. The school has earned distinctions such as Magnet School of Excellence and Gold STEM designation, reflecting its commitment to rigorous academics and technological advancement. Principal Angie Gonzalez spoke about recent achievements, including raising the school's state grade from a C to a B and implementing programs that prepare students for global citizenship. The Commission also approved the co-naming of Augusto Street as Explorer's Way in honor of the school's legacy. Public comments expressed strong community support for the initiative, citing the school's profound impact on generations of Coral Gables families. Commissioners emphasized the importance of quality education in attracting businesses and shaping future leaders. The item concluded with a ceremonial photo and plans for upcoming centennial events in February, including a formal celebration and alumni gathering.

- A.-3. 25-1185 Congratulations to Misha's Cupcakes on receiving the 2025 Commercial Beautification Award.

The Commission recognized Misha's Cupcakes, located at 1586 South Dixie Highway, as the third recipient of the 2025 Commercial Beautification Award. This award honors businesses that enhance Coral Gables' aesthetic appeal through exceptional storefront design and landscaping. Owner Misha Hirshkind expressed gratitude for the recognition, noting her deep roots in the community and commitment to creating a welcoming environment. Commissioners praised the store's inviting design and its role in revitalizing a historically challenging location, transforming it into a vibrant destination for residents and visitors. The discussion highlighted the importance of small businesses in maintaining Coral Gables' charm and character. The presentation concluded with a photo and congratulations from the Commission.

The Coral Gables Fire Department presented its Extrication Team, which achieved top honors at the National Vehicle Rescue Association regional competition in Palm Beach. Special Operations Division Chief Louie Fajardo detailed the team's accomplishments, including first-place finishes and individual awards for technical excellence. The team's rigorous training in realistic rescue scenarios was credited with enhancing critical thinking, leadership, and teamwork skills among firefighters. Commissioners commended the team for its dedication and noted that the true reward lies in the improved safety and service provided to residents. The presentation concluded with remarks from team members and Fire Chief de la Rosa emphasizing the value of continuous training and innovation in emergency response.
