A. PRESENTATIONS AND PROTOCOL DOCUMENTS

- A.-1. 26-1310 Landscape Beautification Award Presentation.

Attachments: 2025 Landscape Advisory Board - Award Winners

The Commission received a presentation from the Landscape Beautification Advisory Board recognizing outstanding residential properties throughout Coral Gables for their landscaping and beautification efforts. Staff explained that the board spends the year canvassing neighborhoods across seven designated zones in the city, identifying properties that best exemplify sustainable landscaping, maintenance, and visual enhancement of the community. Award recipients were selected through a nomination and voting process conducted by the board members. During the presentation, several homeowners and representatives were recognized and presented with plaques. One recipient emphasized that the true credit belonged to the landscaping personnel responsible for maintaining the property daily, specifically recognizing longtime groundskeeper Rafael Garcia for his dedication and hard work. Commissioners thanked all recipients for contributing to the beauty and quality of life of Coral Gables, emphasizing that the city's identity as "The City Beautiful" depends greatly on the pride residents take in maintaining their properties.

- A.-2. 26-1344 Presentation of a Proclamation declaring April 14, 2026 as "Carlos Migoya Day" in Coral Gables.

The Commission proclaimed April 14, 2026, as Carlos Migoya Day in Coral Gables in recognition of his nearly fifteen years of service as President and CEO of Jackson Health System and his decades of leadership in banking, government, and public service. The proclamation detailed his accomplishments in stabilizing and transforming Jackson Health System from a financially distressed institution into one of the nation's leading public healthcare systems. His leadership included overseeing a $2 billion capital improvement initiative funded through a voter-approved bond program, modernizing healthcare infrastructure throughout Miami-Dade County. Mayor Lago delivered extensive remarks reflecting on Migoya's mentorship, leadership, and willingness to provide guidance both professionally and personally. Former Miami Mayor Francis Suarez and community leader Stuart Miller also spoke, highlighting Migoya's courage during difficult fiscal periods, his commitment to public service, and his role in strengthening relationships between Jackson Health System and the University of Miami. Migoya reflected on his immigrant experience, his appreciation for Coral Gables, and his desire to give back to the community that helped shape his life. The mayor concluded the presentation by presenting Migoya with the Key to the City of Coral Gables.

Presentation of a Proclamation declaring April 15, 2026 as "American Airlines Day" in Coral Gables.

The Commission proclaimed April 15, 2026, as American Airlines Day in Coral Gables in celebration of the airline's 100th anniversary. The proclamation recognized American Airlines' transformative impact on South Florida through the establishment and continued growth of its Miami hub, which now serves as a major gateway connecting the United States with Latin America, the Caribbean, Europe, and other international destinations. Representatives from American Airlines emphasized the company's deep relationship with Coral Gables, noting that many employees reside in the city and contribute to its civic life. Speakers highlighted the airline's role in strengthening tourism, trade, and international business in the region. Mayor Lago particularly recognized longtime Coral Gables resident and American Airlines employee Zully Pardo for her dedication both to the airline and the community, describing her as an outstanding ambassador for both organizations.

Presentation of a Proclamation declaring April 17, 2026 as "Brigade 2506 Day" in Coral Gables.

The Commission proclaimed April 17, 2026, as Veterans of the Bay of Pigs Day in Coral Gables in honor of Brigade 2506 and the 65th anniversary of the Bay of Pigs invasion. The proclamation recognized the courage and sacrifice of the Cuban exiles who participated in the 1961 mission to liberate Cuba from communism, acknowledging the hardships endured by those who were imprisoned following the invasion. Rafael Montalvo, president of the Brigade 2506 Veterans Association, addressed the Commission and reflected on his experience as an 18-year-old member of the brigade, emphasizing the continuing importance of preserving the lessons of freedom and democracy. Discussion also focused on the upcoming opening of the new Bay of Pigs Museum in Little Havana, which will preserve the brigade's history and educate future generations. Mayor Lago spoke personally about his family's connection to the Cuban exile community and praised the veterans for their patriotism, sacrifice, and lifelong commitment to freedom.

Congratulations to Officer Alexandra Vega, recipient of the City of Coral Gables "Officer of the Month Award," for the month of February 2026.

Officer Alexandra Vega was recognized as Officer of the Month for February 2026 for her proactive police work during her first weeks as a patrol officer. Police leadership explained that Vega successfully identified and helped apprehend a repeat offender involved in multiple theft incidents within Coral Gables. Even while off duty, Vega recognized the suspect while driving to work and coordinated with on-duty personnel and detectives to facilitate the arrest. The department praised her diligence, initiative, and strong instincts early in her law enforcement career. Vega thanked her supervisors, training officers, colleagues, family, and friends for their support and stated that the recognition reflected the teamwork and professionalism of the entire department.
