Commissioner Keon read the proclamation and mentioned that there will be celebratory activities in the afternoon in which she will be attending. Accepting the proclamation was Donald D. Mr. Slesnick in receiving the proclamation acknowledged the Mayor and City Commission, City Manager and staff on behalf of the Australian Governor and the Ambassador Arthur Sinodinos who he said were notified of this presentation, thanked Presentation accepting the donation of three native all spice trees for William H. Kerdyk, Jr., and Family Park located at 6611 Yumuri Street, Coral Gables, FL 33134.

Mayor Valdes-Fauli introduced the item accepting the donation of three native Allspice trees for William H Kerdyk, Jr., and Family Park located at 6611 Yumuri Street, Coral Gables, Florida 33134.

Fred Couceyro, Director of Community Recreation stated that the donation from Richard Namon, a Coral Gables resident and “TnT4Kids” are teaming up with “IDEASForUs”, a United Nations member to plant three trees in every park in the country for a project that they are calling “Talking Trees TNT4kids”. This is part of the acceptance process for the Allspice trees which is a pilot program at the park. He believes that Mr. Namon and a few individuals on the board are listening on Zoom. They have not requested to speak, however, he wanted to thank them for the donation of all three Allspice trees and have selected three locations, and they will start small and hopefully, they will grow and be part of a project as they move on. This was to publicly thank Mr. Namon and his organization, TnT4Kids and “IDEASForUs”.

Mayor Valdes-Fauli stated that it was a wonderful donation and something that would last forever and perhaps there should be some type of official recognition from us for Mr. Namon and for the organization. He then requested that the City Manager write a letter of thanks and a “thank you” proclamation which would be appropriate, and he thanked Mr. Namon.

Mr. Couceyro stated that they are very humble and did not request that, they did not want anything, but he thought the Mayor’s gesture was a great one and thanked him for doing so.

L. DISCUSSION ITEMS

Commissioner Mena: Just one item. Mayor very briefly. I texted the City Manager and the City Attorney last night, some very sad news, Jackie Travisano from the University of Miami, her son passed away in a tragic car accident. He was a freshman at the University. So, obviously, I wanted to sort of send our condolences out to her, let all of you know to the extent you didn't. Its really tragic news. She is a wonderful person, tremendous partner to the city in her role at the University, and I just can't imagine the sort of what she's going through right now, but I wanted to extend to her our heartfelt condolences.

Mayor Valdes-Fauli: Mr. City Clerk will you write a condolence.

City Clerk Urquia: Yes.

Mayor Valdes-Fauli: Thank you. Anyone else?

Vice Mayor Lago: I just have one item. Just a reminder to Mr. ACM and to the CM, I know that we are balloting for guardian cantoria in January. We are getting to the end of January, just wanted to find out what was the plan for that and when are we finally going to get that going. Thank you by the way, I appreciate all your efforts.

Mayor Valdes-Fauli: Alright. Anything else? Thank you meeting adjourned.
