

PUMPKIN PATCH DRIVE-THRU

At the War Memorial Youth Center, 405 University Drive
For Coral Gables residents only.

Saturday, Oct. 24, 2020

2 - 4 p.m.

Enjoy this special autumn-fun Pumpkin Patch as a drive-thru experience in front of the War Memorial Youth Center. From the safety of your vehicle you'll receive a medium sized pumpkin and decorating kit.

Make sure to participate in the Community Pumpkin Decorating and Carving Contest for making the best pumpkin in town!

Cost is $15 per pumpkin kit and must be purchased in advance at www.playgables.com.
Limited number of tickets available.

STAY SAFE ON HALLOWEEN CORAL GABLES

The CDC recommends fun lower risk alternatives:

LOWER RISK ACTIVITIES:

- Carving or decorating pumpkins at home with household members.
- Decorate your home.
- Carving or decorating pumpkins outside with neighbors & friends.
- Host a virtual costume contest.
- Trick-or-treat scavenger search or movie night at home.

MODERATE RISK ACTIVITIES:

- One-way trick-or-treating (for individually wrapped goodie bags lined up outside to grab).
- Outdoor Halloween activities such as costume parades, pumpkin patches, movies and haunted forests where masks and 6-foot physical distancing are enforced.

HIGHER RISK ACTIVITIES:

- Door to door trick-or-treating.
- Trunk-or-treats with treats handed out from trunks.
- Indoor activities such as costume parties and haunted houses where people may be crowded together.
- Going on hay/tractor rides with people outside your household.

If you have COVID-19 or may have been exposed to someone with COVID-19, you shouldn't participate in any in-person Halloween festivities or give out candy to trick-or-treaters. Visit cdc.gov for more information.
