CITY COMMISSION MEETING
January 25, 2022

ITEM TITLE:

An Ordinance of the City Commission of the City of Coral Gables, Florida, amending Chapter 1, “general provisions”, Section 1-2, “definitions and rules of construction” by designating Juneteenth, June 19th as an official city holiday; providing for severability, repealer, codification, and an effective date.

BRIEF HISTORY:

The City Commission of Coral Gables desires to provide a definition for holiday in order to maintain consistency in the City Code. The other applicable sections of the City Code define holiday to include those days recognized as a holiday by the City. June 19th is recognized as Juneteenth, the day that commemorates the end of slavery in the United States. Juneteenth has long been an important holiday in the African American community, as a time for celebration rather than mourning and remembrance. Juneteenth has been designated a federal holiday and a Miami-Dade County holiday. The City Commission wishes to designate June 19th as an official city holiday for all employees.
