There will be Federal reporting requirements, such as monthly reports on the number of jobs created and retained by the project for both the Contractor and Subcontractors, which the Contractor will have to satisfy. The exact nature and extent of the reporting requirements are unknown at this time. When the reporting requirements are known, the Contractor will be required to provide the information to the Agency on a Florida Department of Transportation form provided by the Agency.

The Agency will withhold the Contractor's progress payments, project acceptance and final payment for failure to comply with the requirements of the 2009 ARRA as outlined above.
