Upon their arrival, Officers made contact with the house keeper who stated that she was inside the residence when she observed an unknown black male walking out of the home theater room. She attempted to ask him what he was doing, and he instantaneously ran outside using a glass sliding door to the pool patio. The unknown black male then ran south through the back yard. Immediately a BOLO was issued for a 25 year old black male, wearing a dark tee shirt with green long shorts.

Officers Wright and Johnson proceeded to check the area where the Offender was last seen. Both Officers located the black male hiding in the bushes on the south side of 9375 Balada St., three houses south from 9345. Officers Wright and Johnson were able to place the offender in custody without any issues. The Victim was transported to the scene where the subject was apprehended for a show-up and was able to identify the offender as the person who had been inside the house. Further investigation revealed the Offender didn't live in the vicinity.
