NEW BUSINESS

SCRC Member Issues:

City of Coral Gables Budget Review - School Related Funding Report (Facilitated by Solanch Lopez & Carmen Manrara-Cartaya)

-The City does not set aside monies for school related items other than for safety/security issues and the Coral Gables History Tours.

-An additional part-time school crossing guard was approved during the City's FY20 budget adoption.

-City receives $70,373 from the school board per officer in City of Coral Gables Public schools with the exemption of Coral Gables Senior High where an officer is positioned as part of their regular duties and paid as part of regular salary.

-Requirement to have an officer from bell to bell for 180 days while kids are in school.

-In addition, for paying for the officers, the county and municipality is doing it on over time.

-MDCPS is trying to receive clearance for retired officers to serve as school resource officers.

-Carmen requests for Coral Gables to make an actual budget line item for education related items.

-Committee will come up with a proposal for Commission review during the next budget planning season.

-Daryl Payne asks question regarding funds for track-lighting.
