Presentation of a Proclamation declaring March 2025 as "Women's History Month" in Coral Gables.

Mayor Lago introduced Agenda Item A-2 8554 Presentation of a Proclamation declaring March 2025 as "Women's History Month" in Coral Gables and Commissioner Menendez read the proclamation. Mayor Lago stated that as they celebrate Women's History Month and the city's centennial, he asked that they also celebrate its proud history of great women's leadership and meaningful contributions from its earliest days. There have been many remarkable women who shaped Coral Gables through their leadership and governance, community building, cultural preservation and advocacy and it took a few decades for the city to break the glass ceiling. He then listed these remarkable women and their accomplishments such as Althea Merrick, the mother the city's founder George Merrick, Eunice Merrick, wife of George Merrick, Dorothy Thomson, first female Mayor, Commissioner Jeannette Slesnick, Historian Arva Moore-Parks, Karelia Carbonnell for her efforts in historic preservation and all the women from our city staff who were there. Additionally, he recognized the Miami-Dade County Commission for Women for all they do to advocate for women and girls in the communities advancing equality, promoting opportunities in ensuring the well-being of women aligns with the values being uphold in Coral Gables and are proud to acknowledge their efforts and to present them with a proclamation in appreciation of their dedication and making Miami-Dade County a better place for all, and together they will continue to honor the legacy of the women who have gone before us and support those shaping our future. Dr. Rose Martin, Director of Miami-Dade County Commission for Women (MDCCFW), accompanied by their Chair Michell Abreu and Board Member Chelsea Granell said on behalf of the Commission they are honored to accept the proclamation in celebration of Women's History Month and also included Roxcy Bolton, a pioneering feminist and Civil Rights Activist who called Coral Gables home, who in the 1960s

founded the Miami-Dade County's Chapter of the National Organization for Women using her Coral Gables residence as the headquarters for organizing numerous rallies and marches. Her relentless advocacy led to significant advancements including the establishment of the nation's first rape treatment center at Jackson Memorial Hospital in 1974 which was later renamed in her honor. As the centennial approaches she asked that we draw inspiration from trail blazers like Roxcy Bolton because her courage and dedication have not only enriched this city's history, but it also paved the way for future generations of women leaders such as the women, she serves with on the MDCCFW and thanked the Mayor and City Commission for the recognition.

The mayor introduced Agenda Item: Presentation of a Proclamation declaring April as "Autism Acceptance Month" in Coral Gables and Raquel Elejabarrieta, Risk Management and Labor Management Director-Human Resources. Director Elejabarrieta stated that April is autism month and each year they present a proclamation declaring "Autism Acceptance Month" in Coral Gables which serves as a reminder of their commitment to fostering an inclusive community that recognizes the unique abilities of individuals on the autism spectrum. Each year, the Board on Disability Affairs selects an individual or organization that exemplifies outstanding support and advocacy for those with autism. This year the city selected the City's Fire Department for their unwavering commitment to helping individuals with disabilities particularly those with autism. The Fire Department has conducted comprehensive autism training for all personnel, ensuring that all firefighters and paramedics are equipped and knowledgeable and have the skills to understand and treat all patients with unique abilities. Additionally, the fire department has hosted numerous tours and demonstrations for children and adults with autism creating a welcoming environment where those individuals can engage in hands-on activities, learn about fire safety and interact with first responders in a way that fosters confidence and understanding. The Fire Department regularly visits Crystal Academy, a school in the city for children with autism, design and wear T-shirts in the month of April showcasing the symbols of acceptance and an understanding of people with autism. Additionally, every year they also do Santa visits to residents of the city with children, who are neurodiverse. She then thanked the Fire Department for their outstanding contributions and commitment to individuals with autism and said that they are appreciated. Mary Palacio, member of the Disability Affairs Board thanked the Mayor, City Commission and Fire Department for all they do for the community, residents and the children. She said that she has served on the board since 2016 and it is a privilege to see how they have evolved through the years, what the board has done with the support of the community and the City Commission. Crystal Academy has been in the city for 16 years in the community have served over 700 families and she hopes that they continue the working together for a more inclusive community one that embraces employment and housing for people of all abilities and thanked the Fire Department for bringing smiles to the children during the Christmas season and the impact they have made and thanked them for being part of their world. Fire Chief de la Rosa thanked the city for the recognition. Their motto is “committed to our community” and that is to all their community. Their training and working with Crystal Academy enhance and allows them to better serve everyone in their community. Retired employees often return to assist as Santa during Christmas and thanked the men and women in the Fire Department for their commitment toward autism awareness and participating with all residents in the community and thanked them again. Mayor Lago said that he reiterates the comments made by Ms. Palacio, the things the Fire and Police Department does with their friends in the autism communities, especially Crystal Academy, and they are grateful, and it shines a positive light on the community, and they are grateful for that. He then read the proclamation and encouraged others to visit the academy.

Mayor Lago introduced Agenda Item A-8 Congratulations to Driver Engineer Ryan Verdecia recipient of the City of Coral Gables "Firefighter of the Month Award," for the month of February 2025 and Fire Chief de la Rosa made the presentation and agreed with Captain Tobon who was one of the Individuals who nominated Driver Engineer Verdecia, because he too would like to nominate him because he demonstrates an outstanding attitude and work ethic making him an invaluable member of their team. His commitment to excellence is evident in everything he does and is always willing to lend a hand. In addition to his exceptional work, he has shown great dedication to the wellbeing of his team members. He took the initiative to introduce a fitness program encouraging all participants to stay active and prioritize their health. His positive influence in leadership has made a significant impact on the station's morale and physical fitness. In accepting his award, Driver Engineer Verdecia thanked his wife, Fire Chief, officers, and his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and he humbly receives the award, and it is an honor and commitment they all share for their health, team and community. They are tasked with the unique responsibility of protecting lives and others and it is personal. He continued by speaking of the value of our taking care of their health, having healthier habits, and being fit to combat obesity in young children and as role models in their communities they must advocate for healthier habits among the youth. By promoting fitness and healthier eating it will inspire children to make better choices and to pave the way to a healthier future. It begins with them, and it will have a rippling effect throughout their communities. He thanked all those responsible for his recognition, encouraged them to be a better version of themselves and will inspire others to do the same. Commissioner Castro thanked him for being a leader and the qualities he mentioned are characteristics of being a good leader in leading all children and the youth and congratulated him. Vice Mayor Anderson stated that his words mirrored a lot of things and advice she received young in life from her mother, like you must take care of yourself first before you can take care of others and the rewards of taking care of our children, because the lasting impact is there decades later. She mentioned her husband is not in great health, but if you look back in history in certain ways, he was encouraged to eat one thing rather than another, the exercise routines, etcetera the seeds are planted young in the ways we are exposed to certain elements or not. She appreciates his efforts in trying to lead by example and teach others as well and thanked him.

Congratulations to Officer Peter Hernandez, recipient of the City of Coral Gables "Officer of the Year," for 2024.

Mayor Lago introduced Agenda Item A-9 and Police Chief Hudak made the presentation in which he stated that Officer Peter Hernandez has been nominated as Officer of the Year 2024, who is a member of the CST (Criminal Surveillance Team, the SWAT Team and many other areas he has worked in the department, and nominated for his outstanding work in 2024 which included Officer of the Month in July 2024 regarding a burglary arrest in which said individual had paraphernalia and drugs in his possession. In September 2024 leading his unit he safely apprehended the individual who had stolen a vehicle with medical equipment inside of it from the City of Miami and during the arrest said individual went into cardiac arrest and Officer Hernandez assisted in saving the individual's life before he was placed into custody after Fire Rescue came. In November 2024, at around 1 o'clock in the morning he observed a habitual offender who upon seeing the officer took off and was later taken into custody with more drug paraphernalia thereby taking these individuals off the streets along with his unit. It is because of these actions all through out 2024 that the Awards Selection Committee and he concurs with the award for the Officer of the Year 2024, Officer Peter Hernandez. Officer Hernandez accepted his award thanking Mayor Lago and the City Commission for taking time to recognize members of their police department, Police Chief Hudak, Asst. Police Chief Hanlon, Major Hoff and Lt. Guasto for their continued support and is extremely humbled and honored to be nominated and selected for the Officer of the Year 2024 and acknowledges that his success and accomplishments is as a result of the hard working men and women he works with daily as a member of the CST team. He thanked Sgt. Alleman for his leadership, guidance, patience, creating a learning environment to learn, grow and become more effective with every criminal case they handle throughout the year and without him the success would not have been possible. Sgt. Christopher Hernandez, Officer Melanie Adate and Officer Joshua DeLeon their hard work, dedication in the pursuit of justice was apparent upon him joining the team with each member bringing a unique skill set and perspective and each one having an active role in the success leading to crime patterns, focused crimes and hot spots being addressed throughout the city resulting in the reduction of crime throughout the city for 2024. His success was credited to the individuals he had an opportunity to work alongside. In gratitude to his team, he will be splitting the monetary award of $5,000 equally with each of its members [applause]. He then thanked the detectives from the Criminal Investigative Division (CID) for their support, Julian Pozo, Crime Analyst, Miami-Dade County Sheriff's Office-Robbery Intervention Detail (RID), City of Miami Tactical Robbery Unit who are always to assist with investigations. He then thanked his wife Chasity and his daughter for their love, grace and patience has allowed him to be successful in his career, without her continued love and support none of this would have been possible. Commissioner Castro stated that it speaks volumes with him sharing his award with his colleagues, there is no "I" in team at the end of the day and congratulated him and he wowed her by what he did. Vice Mayor Anderson thanked them for all they do each day because being a police officer is one of the most difficult jobs, firefighters' jobs aren't easy either and it is because of them they feel safe every day and when they go to sleep.
