B-3 Update on the University's Police Department, Chief David Rivero

- Finished last year with record low crime. Not counting COVID years.
- Biggest crime issue this year has been stolen scooters. The police department is now locking all scooters they see unlocked with a sign that instructs the scooter owner to call the department. They then unlock and let the student keep the lock for free. Several arrests on these cases have been made.
- No violent crimes have taken place.
- There have been a few car accidents involving student. Recently a student crashed into a tree on San Amaro.
- Recruitment of officers on campus continues.

B-4 Update by the University's Vice President of Student Affairs, Dr. Patricia A. Whitely

Dr. Whitely was unable to attend the meeting. The following updates were provided:

- University will be holding a game watch event for students Saturday night at 7:30 p.m. at the Watsco Center.
- New housing scheduled to open in July of 2024.
