Mayor Lago introduced Agenda Item A-1 in recognition of Carson Garcia who received the rank of Eagle Scout, an honor the Mayor believes should not be taken lightly because it comes with absolute determination, dedication, leadership, and hard work. He referred to a scrivener's error made in which Mr. Garcia's name was misspelled when he was first recognized at the Eagle Scout ceremony, and that this presentation is rectifying it with a proper Certificate of Recognition, as well as to recognize and credited Carson's family for their son's accomplishments, in addition to celebrating what the Boy Scout and Girl Scouts do for the country.

Carson Garcia thanked the City Commission, and Mayor Lago said he was proud of him and that he is always welcomed in the City. Mr. Garcia's father thanked the City Commission for highlighting the Boy Scouts especially during these times, and to see the good that is done as a City and a community He also thanked the City for the opportunities afforded to children in volunteerism and community involvement in places like parks and schools where they can impact their community and their environment.

Mayor Lago introduced Agenda Item A-2, regarding a personal appearance by William D. Talbert, President and CEO of the Greater Miami Convention and Visitors Bureau pertaining to the state of the travel and tourism industry.

Mr. Talbert then congratulated the newly elected Mayor and City Commissioners, City Manager, City Attorney and City Clerk, and introduced his bureau staff and Mark Trowbridge from the Coral Gables Chamber of Commerce. He went on to state that June is Travel and Tourism month and in the City of Coral Gables everyday is Travel and Tourism Day because of the partnership the City has with its bureau, and they are doing well. It has been a challenging year, but currently because of the partnership, the City is at or exceeding. 2019 for tourism which is incredible, and that is without any international business, meetings, and conventions and without cruises. So, the future is great because of the partnership, and they look forward to working with the City and introduced T. Gene Prescott of the Biltmore Hotel in Coral Gables. Mr. Prescott stated that there is more leisure and very little business travel, and they are starting to see group requests for proposals and believes that will start to return and thanked the City for their assistance. Mayor Lago introduced Agenda Item A-3 regarding Firefighter Nicholas Martin, recipient of the City of Coral Gables "Firefighter of the Month Award," for the month of June 2021 and Fire Chief Marcos de la Rosa made the presentation. Fire Chief de la Rosa stated that the expectations they have for their firefighters who work for the City, is that their job is a commitment to the organization, themselves in self-development, co-workers, ensuring that they are trained and educated and the betterment of the organization, because they are in it in their active participation, and the firefighter of month demonstrates all of that. It is a family tradition with his father being a captain in the fire department. He has taken numerous classes on his day off and has organized training sessions for his betterment and that of our firefighters including the ones that are not in his shift. It is for his commitment to the department and the firefighters he is our firefighter of the month. Upon receiving his award Firefighter Martin thanked the City Commission and said it was an honor to be there and to work for the City of Coral Gables, and his father, Captain Martin has been a firefighter all his life, he grew up being influenced by the fire department and a lot of his passion comes from him, and that passion has given him the motive to be the best firefighter he can be by taking all the classes and bringing that knowledge back to his fellow firefighters. In closing he said that he appreciates the award and thanked everyone.
