SPEAKER GUIDELINES

- All cellphones should be turned off and pagers silenced during public meetings.
- No one is allowed to disturb/interrupt a public meeting.
- Placards, banners, handled signs or similar items are not permitted in the City Commission Chambers during a public meeting.
- Anyone who breaks these rules may be asked to leave the meeting by the Chair.
- Applicants and appellants will follow these procedures during a public hearing. Each side gets 10 minutes for an initial presentation, five minutes for cross-examination, and five minutes for closing arguments or rebuttal.
- Speakers from the public will be allowed three minutes to talk. Comments should be limited to the subject matter at hand. Speakers cannot give their time allotment to another speaker.
- Speakers who wish to oppose an item up for public hearing must register with the City Clerk beforehand. For more information on public hearing procedures, call City Clerk Billy Y. Urquia at 305-460-5207.
