Stacy L. Morris was born and raised in Los Angeles, California. Stacy has worked for Baptist Health South Florida for the past 23 years. Her career includes 10 years leadership experience in the hospital operational environment and 13 years in the outpatient ambulatory setting leading both operational and support areas. While in the Ambulatory setting, she also had a specific focus on Culture, Engagement and Innovation resulting from sustained organizational growth and the evolving healthcare delivery model. Currently, Stacy is engaged in a wide range of Baptist Health System initiatives including Innovation, Population Health, and Data Governance and serves as a member of the Baptist Health Diversity Council.

She is a long standing member of the American College of Healthcare Executives, currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Women's Fund of Miami Dade and is volunteer with the Girl Scouts. She is a former Examiner for the State of Florida Governor's Sterling award for Quality, former Chair of the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce Leadership Miami program, United Way Impact Council co-Chair and Board Secretary of Switchboard of Miami, among others. She was also selected as a torchbearer for the 1996 Summer Olympic Games.

Stacy received her undergraduate degree from UCLA. She earned her graduate degree in Health Policy and Administration from The Pennsylvania State University.

Stacy and her husband, Pat, have two children and reside in Coral Gables.
