Mayor Lago introduced Agenda Item A-1 regarding a Resolution of Condolence to the family of Nino Perneti. In his remarks regarding this remarkable individual, friend, restaurateur who treated all his patrons as celebrities, the ultimate host, a pillar in the community who valued personal relationships and have employees who has worked for him for over 30 years. Above all, he was a proud father and former husband of his ex-wife Marlen and thanked him for his great service to the City of Coral who has co-designated the 300 block of Aragon Avenue in his honor. Commissioner Menendez stated that when you meet someone like Nino, you must cherish and celebrate them. This community leader was a special individual who touched the hearts of many both young and old and his restaurant Caffé Abbracci for many generations, including his family, it was their second home and they felt that they were part of Nino's family and today it seems like less and less there are this special type of people. Commissioner Anderson remembers the many times when he saw her walking, he would ask how she was doing and shared many of his sentiments.

Commissioner Fors, Jr., reflected on his memorable experiences when he met Nino, who was presented with the Keys to the City and his first date with his wife at Caffé Abbracci, and that he was an asset to the community that will forever live in the hearts of Coral Gables. Vice Mayor Mena stated that when Nino passed away the outpouring of heartfelt messages was incredible and noted that whatever you do in life you can touch and impact people in a special way and Nino was such an example. While there are many restaurants in the community, there are few that give the affection from both the owner and restaurant which is a testament to his spirit, values and what he did for so many years and he will be missed. He gave his condolences to the family and honored Nino for a life well lived and making a great impact on his community. Mayor Lago concurred and elaborated on all that was said about Nino who had a giving spirit and someone who never sought the limelight or accolades and in some small way the city will honor his legacy. Vice Mayor Mena then read the Resolution of Condolences. Nino's daughter, Tatiana Perneti thanked the City Commission for the privilege and the honor given to her father who would have been humbled by the sentiments given and how appropriate it is because of how involved he was in Coral Gables and reminisced on the stories her father told her about the first beginnings of the restaurant and who worked tirelessly to make Coral Gables better for everyone.

L. DISCUSSION ITEMS

Mayor Lago: Commissioner Anderson, do you have any comments?

Commissioner Anderson: Just want to bring up the fact that I did meet with residents that asked to meet with me regarding Salvadore Park in a couple different ways. One, the lights stay on late, and it seems to invite folks to come from elsewhere and play the drums and play the music; and the other is, we need to shut the lights off at a reasonable period of time. Most of our parks are from dawn to dusk, might be a need to keep it on a little bit during the wintertime. I don't know if we need to take any action, change a resolution on that in order to address that, but let us know if you need that. The other is noise level; the parties on the weekend, the Mariachi band, its driving them crazy. They don't mind the little pony and stuff like that, but the Mariachi band just follow you over to Almeria and so forth. People were coming and complaining about that. Do we have a permitting process for these parties looked at? What's the issue?

City Manager Iglesias: Mayor and Commissioners, I'll meet with our Parks Director, because I don't think that's an area, we formerly can have parties like that without getting special permit. One thing is having a few people, and one thing is having horses, Mariachi bands and things like this. Its not the intent, so I'll make sure that I will discuss this and have planned on discussing this with our Parks Director and make sure that that doesn't happen and looking at the lighting issue. See how we can better control it. And really our parks are sunup to sunset, so I think we need to really enforce that.

Commissioner Anderson: The other is, there were some issues they brought up regarding the dog park.

Commissioner Menendez: The magic word. We finally got dog park into the meeting today.

Mayor Lago: Yes, we did.

Commissioner Anderson: [Inaudible - off mic]...want to preserve the trees, see if we can come to a resolution, okay. You're ready.

Commissioner Menendez: I'm ready. So, I only have two items. One we have to vote on. One is so we have a problem with too many peacocks and too much Mariachi. I just took notes on that.

Commissioner Anderson: We'll put them together.

Commissioner Menendez: Put them together. I want to appoint a young woman to the Parks and Rec Youth Advisory Board. I know we voted earlier, and I finally have the information. Her name is Angelica Santalice, and if you don't mind, I'll make a motion.

Commissioner Anderson: Second.

Commissioner Menendez: We have a second, we have the vote.

City Clerk Urquia: All in favor.

All: Aye.

City Clerk Urquia: Thank you.

Commissioner Menendez: And the only other thing, hopefully, do you have my poster, my movie poster. I know it's been 42 hours since we started this meeting, but there it is. Saturday, July 2nd, 1 p.m., the comedy classic Airplane with Robert Stack, Leslie Nielson, gentleman from Mission Impossible, Peter Graves. It's a groundbreaking comedy, because after that, that movie spurred Naked Gun, a whole series of movies. And that movie, if you laugh too hard at one joke, you miss three other jokes; and when I showed the Birds a couple of weeks ago, that was the movie trailer, people said they could hear the laughter outside of the theater. So, its free popcorn, free soda, other beverages. I don't know if I'm allowed to say at the public meeting, but by the way, no age restrictions here, because I heard folks want to bring their kids, their grandkids, because this is one of those movies, they know at least for 90 minutes they are not going to stop laughing. So, by all means bring your family, bring your friends, but you won't regret it. And again, the famous line, surely you can't be serious, and the answer is, yes, I'm serious, but don't call me Shirley, that's from where the joke came from. Thank you.

Mayor Lago: Thank you Commissioner. I'd like to close with saying thank you to staff. We are closing out at 7 o'clock, this is probably one of the longest Commission meetings we've had in a very, very long time. I want to thank staff for their efforts today, you are to be commended. And to all the residents and business owners that stayed to the end. Thank you, Biltmore Way, we appreciate you. Our Assistant City Attorney did a wonderful job filling in. Congratulations.

Deputy City Attorney Suarez: Thank you Mayor.

Mayor Lago: You didn't miss a beat. In closing, one last thing. I want to make sure that we welcome everyone to July 4th. It's been two years since Covid and its time to celebrate. Its time to celebrate, not only that we are out of Covid, but more importantly its time to celebrate that this is the birth of America, and as an immigrant, as a son of an immigrant to this country, this is probably one of the most special moments for me to celebrate every single year. 1776 know the history, a long-storied history, we have been a beacon of hope, dignity and respect throughout the world. So, I ask everybody to remember on that day on July 4th, yes barbeques are important, I'd love to have beer and chicken wings, we love to enjoy the fireworks, we love to be amongst family, but I think it's a moment especially in today to reflect on what is the privilege that it is to live in the greatest country in the world. So, I can't say it enough. I look forward to everyone joining us on July 4th, going to be a family affair, it's a quality atmosphere at the Biltmore and its always an opportunity to just enjoy in the splendor of what it is to live in the United States of America. Thank you and God bless and have a wonderful and safe summer.
