To Whom It May Concern:

As Director of the world famous Saddlebrook International Tennis I have had the opportunity and pleasure to work with Bill Aronson.

Bill Aronson brings exceptional talent and skill to his level of instruction. His skill as a teacher and instructor not only adds a unique dimension to the teaching but attracts a high caliber of player.

To Whom It May Concern:

Bill Aronson is the assistant tennis coach at the University of Rochester. I recommend him most highly for the position of head tennis coach at your college or university.

He has helped our team members with their strokes and has drilled them very effectively. They enjoy his quiet manner and his large assortment of drills, which he uses with a purpose.

Bill has been a tennis professional at Harry Hopman's Camp for a long period of time. His background there has been of great help, since he often incorporates in our team practices drills that he learned there.

Bill's job at the counceling center at the University has been very valuable on the tennis court too. On several occasions members of our team have been helped by Bill about personal matters. He relates very well with people--especially, young adults.

Again, taking into account all his talents, experience, and knowledge of tennis, I recommend Bill most highly for the position of head tennis coach at your institution.

Sincerely,

Peter Lyman

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing this letter on behalf of Bill Aaronson. Bill worked for me as one of my staff Coaches at the College Tennis Academy Camp at Harvard in August of 1990. I hired him due to his vast, quality coaching and teaching background. I understand that Bill, at an early age of 24 years old, was a successful college tennis coach at Springfield College. Bill has extensive experience working with tennis players from around the world. He has been working as one of the top teaching pros on Harry Hopman's International Tennis Camp staff for the last few years.

At my camp, Bill was highly professional, informative, and enthusiastic when working with our tournament players. He's a c individual. I can definitely him to you. Feel free to call me 617-774-0124 if you have an about Bill. Sin

To Whom It May Concern:

I am glad to recommend Dr. Bill Aronson. I had the pleasure of working with him on a committee of the US Tennis Association. He was the staff liaison to the sports sciences committee and administrator of sports sciences. I found him to be a person of high integrity and who could set goals for the organization and for the committee. He was able to work within the committee structure to effect the programs that were decided upon by the committee and by the USTA. During his tenure at the USTA there were significant budget restrictions that imposed limitations on what the committee could do compared to what it did in the past. I found him able to work within these limitations and still produce work for the committee.

I also found him to be a personable individual who was able to work within the group structure. With his high energy level, personal integrity and motivation to make a contribution in his work I feel he would make significant contributions in his work.

Sincerely,

W. Ben Kibler, M.D.

ASK THE EXPERT

Bill Aronson Ph.D.
Administrator of Sport Science

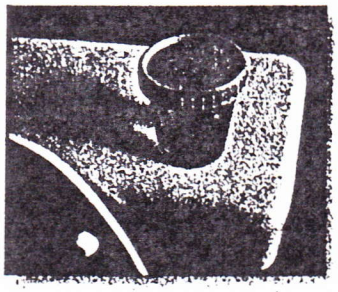
What is the role of the Sports Science Department within USA Tennis Player Development?

The Mission of the Sport Science department is to produce, evaluate and disseminate sport science information relevant to tennis. The goals of Sport Science are the following:

1. Utilize Sport Science as a basis for selected USTA programs, policies and training.

2. Make the latest Sport Science technology readily available to the tennis community at large, including USTA members, recreational players, sections, coaches and tournament players.

3. Organize and foster tennis specific research and knowledge in the following areas: Sport Biomechanics, Exercise Physiology, Motor Learning, Sport Nutrition, Sport Psychology and Sports Medicine.



The Sport Science Committee is comprised of a group of experts in each of these descriptions. The Sport Science awards research grants in these areas each year. Coaches, Administrators, faculty and the public may apply for research grant money.

Sport Science provides educational resources by providing Level 1 (Foundations of Sport Science) and Level 2 (Sport Science Competency) exams. The Level 2 exam has three categories:

2A) Sport Psychology and Motor Learning
2B) Sport Physiology and Nutrition
2C) Sports Medicine and Biomechanics

These exams are all open book. Please call 888-354-8782 for testing information.

The Sport Science Department acts as a liaison for the Tennis Anti-Doping program that is administered by Managed Athletic Testing Services (MATS) for American players. Information on drug testing and procedures can be reached at USTA.com, then USA Tennis, then Player Development and then Sports Science.

The USTA Anti-Doping program booklet is currently being updated and will be available in early 2001. Sport Science department and the USTA has taken an active role in having an Anti-Doping policy that is consistent with the ITF, ATP and WTA tours. This is referred to as "The Tennis Anti-Doping Program."

The Sport Science department is involved in both the training and fitness programs of American Tennis players. The USA Strength and Conditioning coach travels on a regular basis to future, satellite/challenge and professional events. These include both domestic and international events.

Sport Science works closely with the Coaching Education Department. Sport Science provides speakers and research for both the High Performance Coaches program and for their newsletter. In addition, the department is developing a Parent Guidebook that is slated for completion during the summer of 2001.

The Sport Science Staff is composed of Bill Aronson Ph.D.: Administrator of Sport Science Department, Marcie Londono: Sport Science Assistant and Barrett Bugg: USTA Strength and Conditioning Coach. For further information, please call (888) 354-(USTA).

Hilda Kate Meyer Celebrates Life

Longtime member Hilda Kate Meyer celebrated her 100th birthday in December 2015 at the Menorah Park apartment in Beachwood, Ohio.

Many members and friends of BHC send cards to her on this occasion and she responded with her famous grace and style: "Thank you for helping me to celebrate my centennial birthday. Your expression of affection and good wishes for me just made my day.

"My best to you and yours in this new year. This is how I look at 100."

Judith Roberts, Meyer's daughter, also wrote about the event along when she sent the photo of the cake presentation. "Thank you and all the members of the BHC who responded with birthday cards for my mother. When I handed her a rather large box which I had covered with wrapping paper, she had no idea what was in store. .... She was really surprised." Over sixty cards arrived from BHC folks to add to the other greetings for the occasion."

Tennis Anyone?

Bill Aronson, a teaching pro in Coral Gables and Director of Development for the Youth Tennis Foundation in Florida, joined lawyers, physicians, parents, students and others in a five-day trip

Aronson was invited by Jake Agna, tennis director for Kids on the Ball Program; a non-profit out of Vermont whose mission is to provide children with in-school, after-school and summer programs with both education and tennis.

They noted that Cuba has a Tennis Federation with little equipment such as racquets, balls, and equipment.

Aronson donated his time to help the organization, working with children, juniors, and elite tennis players. He was amazed with their passion and dedication.

Agna continues to travel to Cuba every few months.

He is working on having an American company go to Cuba to build facilities and resurface the tennis courts.

Aronson is looking into the possibility of working together with Agna and the Cuban Tennis Federation through the YTF.

"Some amazing things are happening" Aronson said. "They're, renovating their whole Tennis Fedeeration. I'm hungry to learn about the Cuban relationships. I enjoyed it. It was pretty simple, called People to People."

TAMPA BAY PLAYERS DOMINATE SENIOR GAM

By NANCY MORGAN

Clearwater played host to the 24th annual Florida Senior Games and its 24 sports for athletes at least 50 years of age. It was the first time the Olympic-style competition was scheduled in the Tampa Bay area since the Games' inception in 1992. In all, more than 2,000 athletes participated.

Innisbrook Resort was selected as host of the tennis competition in men's and women's singles, doubles and mixed doubles.

Over 120 players competed in the three-day event.

"The atmosphere was absolutely amazing," said Sarah Kirschberg, who has coordinated the FSG tennis competition the last four years. "Pam Collins and her staff at Innisbrook did a fantastic job and players from the recreational to the really-skilled level seemed to all have a very positive experience."

Tampa Bay area players won 12 gold medals spread among singles, doubles and mixed divisions. Double gold winners were Dan Beck, Arthur Burns and Debbie Hobbs.

Hobbs won her golds in women's 60-64 singles and in 60-64 mixed doubles with husband Steve. Burns, playing in his first Games' competition, won men's singles in the 70-74 division and men's doubles in 70-74 with Chip Gamble. Beck won the men's 55-59 singles and the 55-59 doubles with partner Mike Kowal.

"I last played in the Florida Senior Games ages ago and really enjoyed it then," said Beck. "There were eight of us in this singles draw with a variety of levels. The final was an incredible match and came down to a third-set tiebreak. I definitely plan on playing in the 2016 Games."

The other six gold medals were earned in singles by Teresa Thompson in the 50-54 division and Dee Dolson in 55-59. Doubles winners, along with Beck and Kowal in 5-59 and Burns and Gamble in 75-79, included Terry Tetzlaff & Richard Whissel in 70-74, Anne Pulley & Jenny Bell 50-54, Emily Signoracci & Debbie Dawson 60-64 and Ann Worthington & Susan Hobbs 65-69.

Joining Tampa Bay area gold medal winners in women's singles were Martha Poitevent of East Palatka in 65-69, Carolyn Brown of Lake City 70-74, Merlin Nuti-de Biasi 75-79 and Charlotte Fisher of New York 80-84.

In men's singles were John Steinmann of Ponte Vedra Beach in 60-64, Gabriel Wong of Ponte Vedra 65-69, Julian Rainwater of Jacksonville 70-74, Thomas Winn of Leesburg 80-84 and Edmund Krowka of Port St. Lucie 85-89.

Susie Dudevoire and Vickie Miller of Bradenton in the 55-59 division round out the women's doubles' winners and were joined by men's champions Steinmann and John Baker in 60-64, Scott Campbell and Aubrey Whitaker of Lake Wales 65-69 and David Bonnar and Russell Reinhard of Melbourne 85-89.

Aubrey Whitaker teamed with his wife Judi in the 65-69 division to win their fourth overall mixed doubles title.

The final, played against Martha Poitevent and John Baker, came down to a third-set tie break. The final score was 4-6, 7-5, 13-11.
