- A.-2. 22-4202 Recognition of Thomas P. Pozo, student intern in the Communications and Public Affairs Department.
(Sponsored by Commissioner Menendez)

Mayor Lago introduced Agenda Item A-2, recognition of Thomas P. Pozo, student intern in the Communications and Public Affairs Department. In making the presentation, Commissioner Menendez stated that the city benefits from the intern programs started by the Mayor with the PAGE program and the Cavaliers future leaders' program which kicks off this summer as well. Also, that the student Thomas P. Pozo interning with the Communications Department is from Christopher Columbus High School and is part of their CCNN live, a fully functional news network and highly acclaimed student television station in the entire country and gave a background of the news network. Ms. Martha Pantin, Director - Communications & Public Affairs Division-Cable TV stated that she is impressed by him and that he is a recipient of four Emmy Awards and listed Mr. Pozo's numerous projects and sees this as a learning experience for them and him bringing new ideas to the department and they are excited to have this impressive individual interning in their department. Mr. Pozo thanked the City Commission and especially Commissioner Menendez for the opportunity. He feels privileged to be the first High School student doing internship and being a resident of the city and working closely with the Mayor and City Commission, will do the best he can, and it is an honor. Commissioner Menendez thanked him, and in the future, he hopes more interns would participate in the program.

FF of the month ltr June 2022

Mayor Lago introduced Agenda Item A-5 congratulating Captain Carlos Lopez, recipient of the City of Coral Gables “Firefighter of the Month Award,” for the month of June 2022. Fire Chief Marco de la Rosa in making the presentation stated that Captain Lopez, an aspiring command level member was tasked with a project to initiate their emergency command systems from the state, Everbridge and is on his way to implementing the project city-wide. It is because of his leadership, willingness to educate himself and thereby bettering the organization, he is being nominated. Captain Lopez said it all started at a young age with his Jesuit education and enforced later by his supervising fire officers. His philosophy is “taking ownership” and in doing so, every time he put his best foot forward, he has always succeeded in life. Fire Chief de la Rosa and Deputy Chief James challenged him with a special assignment which took him out of his comfort zone to which he had zero experience. He also acknowledged coworkers who assisted him as the project manager with the implantation of the system and thanked the City Commission.

Mayor Lago introduced Agenda Item A-8 Congratulations to Sergeant Veller Zaccheo and Officer Alexander Rodriguez, recipients of the City of Coral Gables "Officer of the Month award," for the month of March 2022. Police Chief Edward James Hudak made the presentation in which Sergeant Zaccheo and Officer Rodriguez were both responsible for the arrest in the case of a bank robbery which also involved one of the suspects requiring medical care because she was pregnant. They both are being commended for their quick responsive action and professionalism in handling of this rather unique case. The officers thanked their department stating that it was a joint effort and that they could not do it alone and appreciate the recognition. Mayor Lago then emphasized the importance of teamwork which was mentioned by all the officers receiving awards and that it is done citywide from the City Commission, City Manager and all employees and the value of going the extra mile setting the city apart from all other municipalities and thanked them for their hard work toward the residents and business community. Commissioner Fors, Jr. also spoke on the critical nature of police officers' job and the element of surprise in not knowing what they will encounter when they respond to a call and that they have the support of the City Commission having to do what no one else has to do and thanked them.

L. DISCUSSION ITEMS

Mayor Lago: Commissioner, any final thoughts?

Commissioner Anderson: Final thoughts. I handed out to you an air potato.

Mayor Lago: I saw that.

Vice Mayor Mena: I can't tell if that really happened or I'm just tired.

Commissioner Anderson: Yes, it really did happen. So, I've been working with Solanch and Solanch is going to be working in the fall to do a more formal project on the air potato removal. So, during this literacy festival, I thought I would have some fun with the kids and ask them if they wanted to help the environment, and I challenged them to collect three pounds and they would get a free book from a list that I'm going to provide to them by e-mail. I got two and-a-half pages of volunteers. Their parents signed them up.

Mayor Lago: I have a perfect place where we can start, there's a bunch of air potatoes and I'll join you.

Commissioner Anderson: Yes. I'm starting to mark the maps when I go out biking.

Vice Mayor Mena: I don't even know what an air potato is, honestly.

Mayor Lago: It's an invasive vine.

Commissioner Anderson: Its an invasive vine. Its right out in our city parking lot, by the way. So, I just want to let you all know that.

Mayor Lago: Love it.

Commissioner Fors: They smell bad too. They don't smell great. They look very edible, but apparently, they're not.

Mayor Lago: Commissioner, any final thoughts?

Commissioner Fors: No. I have nothing else.

Mayor Lago: Commissioner Menendez.

Commissioner Menendez: Just since a lot of people say some of our meetings are for the birds. I want to announce and remind everybody, this Sunday at 1 pm, Alfred Hitchcock, The Birds. Free movie, free popcorn, free soda, free refreshments and free beer at the Gables Art Cinema. I'm posting it. It's a great movie. The Birds are big, scary, you'll enjoy it. So, by all means, you can go on playables, city's website and get your free tickets if you're a resident, 40 and older. I brought the age down, because a lot of people in that age range wanted to see the movie.

Mayor Lago: So, Vice Mayor, I have one comment or at least a request. I leave for Washington with Naomi and staff in an effort to find some money for the mobility hub. We are going to bring back some money. Just like we are going to be successful with huge numbers in Tallahassee, which hopefully the budget will be signed June 2nd, that would be another reason to celebrate. I ask for your input. A lot of you have contacts in Washington on both sides of the isle. Don't be shy. If you have somebody over there that you think is worth meeting in regard to the mobility hub, looking for funding, we are going there for three days to shake the trees. We are going to meet with elected officials, and we are going to go to a flood coalition symposium, which is happening one and-a-half days. So, I ask you to please, get in touch with the Manager, any ideas, all ideas are welcome. I don't care on what side of the isle the person's on or what their views are, we need to meet with them because we need to find money for the mobility hub. So, just putting it out there. Thank you. I hope everybody has a great summer. God bless. Take care.
