Hello, Mr.Vilato,

I hope you had a nice holiday season!

I just wanted to give you an update on the hedge situation.

Seeing as my 2 options were cutting them down to 30" or putting up parking garage mirrors {the horror}, I decided to remove them completely. These plants are very, very old and have deep root systems, so I can't do it myself {additionally, my household has covid again}. So, I was able to schedule landscapers to come out next week to rip them out. Cutting them down to 30" tall is cutting them down to their trunks, so I would have 10' on either side of my driveway with just little trunks which would look terrible.

Thank you for your patience, much appreciated!!

Take care,
Catalina

Good afternoon, Mr.Vilato,

I hope you are well.

I received a notice about cutting down some hedges in the front and side of my home but have had a difficult time finding a landscaper to come and do it. I was wondering if I could please get an extension so that I can find someone else to come and trim them?

Thank you so much!
Happy Thanksgiving,
