ASSISTANT DIRECTORS REPORT

a. General Updates

Assistant Director Pichardo opened his report by providing a detailed overview of current and upcoming youth programs. He highlighted the continued success of the travel and recreational soccer leagues, the upcoming basketball season, and the strong community interest in both flag football and recreational volleyball. In addition to these athletic programs, he noted the Community Recreation's Departments ongoing coordination of special events, emphasizing their role in fostering community engagement and offering diverse recreational opportunities for residents.

Assistant Director Pichardo further reported on recent developments within the department's educational programming. He announced that Study Smart Tutors has been awarded the contract to provide STEM services following a competitive bid process. He explained that the new contractor will support the expansion of STEM-focused activities and enhance the quality of instructional offerings available to youth participants.
