Board members were provided with a proposal for a waiver request of the Art in Public Places fee for The Aurelian development project at 912 E. Ponce de Leon Blvd.

Jose Mata and Kenneth Dupret appeared before the Board on behalf of the developer, Empira Group. They described the project and discussed the location. Michele Oka Doner was unable to attend; however, Mr. Mata walked through a PowerPoint presentation detailing previous related work by the Artist and the proposed sculpture, "The Aurelia."

Board members were provided with the Arts Advisory Panel's recommendation to recommend approval, including their comments to address the siting and lighting of the artwork.

After a brief discussion, the following motion was made.

A motion was made by Mr. Valdes-Fauli and seconded by Mr. Rodriguez to accept the recommendation of the Arts Advisory Panel and recommend approval of the waiver request for The Aurelian as presented. The motion passed unanimously.

C. OLD BUSINESS

D. CULTURAL GRANT UPDATES

Mr. Fliss led a discussion regarding updates to the Cultural Grant process. He summarized the previous year process and recommended including the Bonus Points received per application to be included in advance of the final review and included in the average score prior to final calculation. In addition, he urged greater attention to the criteria regarding project budgets vs. operating budgets. Board members agreed and staff responded that the modifications will be made along with defining the Youth Arts Program in greater detail.
