Farewell to Commissioner James C. Cason.

Mayor Lago thanked Commissioner Cason for accepting the appointment to serve the city once again because of a vacancy on the City Commission. The mayor then gave a brief history of the distinguished service of Commissioner Cason to the country and residents of Coral Gables, also for his perspective and guidance and wished him all the best. A video was then shown wherein Commissioner Cason spoke of his impressive achievements, tenure as Mayor of Coral Gables, Sea Level Rise, and his years as a public servant. Commissioner Menendez thanked Commissioner Cason for accepting the appointment to serve on the City Commission, his wisdom and perspective regarding his community and how appreciative he was of him because they share the same values. Commissioner Anderson stated that she appreciates his foresight in bringing to the community early, the risk of our region regarding sea level rise and encouraged him to reach out to the City Commission with any guidance in the future. Vice Mayor Mena thanked Commissioner Cason for his support and guidance which has been empowering to him. He also mentioned Carmen Cason, his wife, who is a wonderful person and who passionately supported him and thanked them for their service to the city, and he will be missed. Commissioner Cason thanked the City Commission for affording him the opportunity to return and serve and complimented them on how well the city is being run, their accomplishments and for being honest in having integrity which builds on the work of those who served before in making the city better. Jokingly he stated that while he is honored to have served, he will not be running for election, that he is here, and he is out. (Laughter and Applause) City Attorney Suárez stated that it was a pleasure working with him when he was mayor and over the few months as well, and that the city will continue his initiative of sea level rise whitepaper, complete and update it and she is sure that he will stay involved and thanked him. City Manager Iglesias thanked him for his service to the country and city and it was a pleasure working with him over the past few months and will also continue working on the issues of climate change and sea level rise. City Clerk Urquia thanked him and stated that he appreciates his leadership over the years, for accepting the appointment in returning to serve and making the process easy for him and everyone else. Mayor Lago on behalf of the City Commission thanked Commissioner Cason's wife Carmen Cason who advocates for numerous issues pertaining to the city. As a token of appreciation, from the City Commission a replica of the Alhambra Water Tower was given to Commissioner Cason in appreciation of his indelible service. The City Attorney's Office presented Commissioner Cason with a personalized cat collar referencing the city code with a bell. This was done in appreciation for all his work and support of their office and because he mentioned that upon leaving Office, he will be getting a cat.

Farewell to Vice Mayor Michael Mena.

Mayor Lago stated that this was a bittersweet moment in saying farewell to Vice Mayor Mena who he has had the pleasure of working with for the past six years and can quickly decipher complicated issues, never plays politics, has a brilliant mind, a thoughtful leader, and will surely be missed, especially by him. Parks build communities and him emphasizing on community recreation has made a difference for the city and its future and ensuring that they have world-class parks. He hopes that this is not his last dance on the Commission. He asked him to stay because people like him and Commissioner Cason don't come around often. Even when there was a difference of opinions it was done with dignity and class. In naming a Vice Mayor two years ago, he could not have found a better person to pass the gavel to over the years. On behalf of the City Commission, he presented Vice Mayor Mena with a gavel as a token of appreciation on behalf of the City Commission and the city and said that he will miss him. (Applause) A tearful, heartfelt and funny video of the life of Vice Mayor Mena from his birth to present was then shown and received a standing ovation. Mayor Lago asked fellow Commissioners and colleagues to say a few words. Tissues were distributed for all overcome by the video. Commissioner Menendez stated that Vice Mayor's wife Lisa Marie deserved a round of applause, which she received, for her part in the video. Commissioner Menendez thanked Vice Mayor Mena's for his incredible work in serving on the Commission and for being a true family man and emphasized that nothing else matters. He also complimented him on having a beautiful family, the entire Mena family, and that is the foundation that all existence is built upon. It was his pleasure to sit next to him and he then jokingly spoke of a meeting when it ran until 2:00 a.m. in the morning with Vice Mayor Mena staring at his computer whispered, "I can't think" (laughter) and he knew then they were in trouble when he made that statement. He also commended him for always being so focused and zeroing in on the issues. He thanked him for all he did with parks, being honest and having character to always do the right thing, and he is a friend forever. Commissioner Anderson also commended Lisa Marie for what she said on the video regarding the Vice Mayor and hopes he will continue his legacy regarding parks and community for the next generation because while all the fruits of his labor have not all come to fruition as yet, they will in the future and thanked him. Commissioner Cason stated that Vice Mayor Mena is the type of person that the city needed to have on the City Commission, a person of integrity, interested in the community, intelligent, intense and he has proven that over the past six years and wished he had a opportunity to work with him longer, but nonetheless in what he has seen he has done a terrific job and has brought civility to the Commission which he is proud of and great community leadership. City Manager Iglesias thanked Vice Mayor

Mena for his service over the past six years in which he has enjoyed their deep discussions which have been quite helpful in his duties. His ethics and leadership are a credit to the city, thanked him and said he will be missed. City Attorney Suárez on behalf of her staff and attorneys past said she is thankful for his support throughout the years have enjoyed the many robust discussions regarding legal issues they have had to tackle which have been helpful and an interesting dynamic back and forth which has been much appreciated and are thankful for his leadership. City Clerk Urquia stated that he will be missed and reminded him about the speech Vice Mayor Mena made at his swearing-in ceremony when he spoke about his grandmother that brought him to tears. He is credited for electronic submittal of campaign financial documents as well as always being the voice of reason and standing up for others, especially employees who often do not have a voice and it is greatly appreciated and he is going to miss seeing him at events, and having to spend weeks practicing jokes to tell his dad so that he can keep up with him. (Laughter). The Vice Mayor in response to the remarks given regarding his service to a grateful city stated that it is a bittersweet day and that he had thought long and hard regarding continuing to serve and decided that the best path for his family was not to seek re-election and it was a difficult decision. He loves the job despite the challenges and knows that anything rewarding in life comes with challenges and he relishes those challenges when there are difficult issues which he takes seriously in preparing to tackle those challenges. It has been an honor of a lifetime to serve as Vice Mayor of the City Commission of Coral Gables and an awesome responsibility which has never been lost regarding the magnitude of the job. He considers himself a romantic and strives to serve with respect and dignity each day that the Office merits. He ran to serve and make his community better for his family and its residents and take pride in the accomplishments made and listed some of them regarding public safety, parks, fire, city finances, avoiding a concrete cannon on Miracle Mile, trolleys, freebees, sustainability, Umbrella Sky Project, Moon Over the Gables, little free library in city parks, etcetera. These achievements are the direct result of a diligent and powerful staff who operate with the uttermost integrity. The city is blessed with true public servants at all levels. Of notable mention was City Manager Iglesias, former City Attorney Ramos, current City Attorney Suárez, Police Chief Hudak, Fire Chief de la Rosa who have been incredible leaders and friends who he can count on, trust and rely on as well as directors, support staff and many others of which he named, all the men and women in blue, fire department, first responders, public works, everyone who works and serves the city in whom he holds in highest regard and grateful to have worked with all of them, and hopes that through challenging times they felt they had someone that had their back and support. He then thanked his colleagues admitting that because of the challenges the job brings they may disagree, but to have the respect for each other and trust in the integrity of the people who sit with you, and whether they agree or disagree you know that they are coming from the right place. He then thanked Mayor Lago, Commissioners Menendez, Anderson, Cason former Commissioners Fors, Jr., and Keon, former Mayor Valdes-Fauli and former Vice Mayor Quesada who he thanked for encouraging him to run and has always been supportive. Vince, for appointing him as Vice Mayor which has been one of the biggest privileges of his life, and Jorge thanks for the support and friendship. He then thanked the residents for the privilege of representing and serving them. He thanked his family for allowing him the opportunity to fulfill his dream and his wife Lisa Marie who always supported him and for bearing the weight of added responsibilities that it entails at home, and his daughters who he loves very much for sacrificing personal time with him and he hopes that the city is a better place for them to grow up because of their efforts. He also thanked his parents, siblings and extended family, loyal friends who have supported him over the years, because he could not have done this without them, and he is grateful. He read the speech entitled “Man in the Arena” by Theodore Roosevelt as an encouragement to his colleagues when they feel pressured and criticized. Continuing, he stated that it has been the honor of his life to serve the city and thanked them all for the opportunity. (Applause) He then presented through Mayor Lago a city seal from him and his family to be hung in the Commission Chambers. City Attorney Suárez and her office also made a presentation to Vice Mayor Mena. Assistant City Attorney Ceballos stated that their token of appreciation has nothing to do with the city and would not end up in the closet, because in light of Vice Mayor Mena having played basketball back in the day, and with Belen winning their first state basketball championship, they are presenting him with a basketball that was used right before the first state championship by Belen which was signed by all the coaches and players and it’s a unique item in that only Coach Chachi and him has one. (Applause) Vice Mayor thanked them all. Mayor Lago stated the Vice Mayor came in on his own terms and is leaving on his own terms and that is something to be proud of. He loves him like a brother and he and the City Commission will miss him as their bond has grown. He wishes him the best because he is already successful in life as an accomplished lawyer and knows that there is a lot more to expect from him and he loves him. Commissioner Menendez then took a selfie of all the elected and appointed officials on the dais.

Mayor Lago introduced Agenda Item A-1 - Recognition to the Coral Gables Art Cinema for achieving Silver Certification under the Coral Gables Green Business Program. Matthew Anderson, Assistant for Mobility & Sustainability/Public Works, Solanch Lopez, Marketing Manager/City Manager's Office and Marlin Ebbert, Chairwoman/City's Sustainability Advisory Board and Coral Gables Art Cinema made the presentation. Mr. Anderson congratulated the Coral Gables Art Cinema for being the ninth certified Coral Gables green business that has been a bike friendly business, for implementation of a comprehensive recycling program; using sustainable products in their cinema; turning off all unnecessary lights to conserve energy; using paperless ticketing, for being original partners in the reverse vending machines program, showing for the past 4-5 years environmental films at the cinema and are incredible partners to the city's "Keeping the City Beautiful" program. Ms. Ebbert stated that she has been lucky to be Chair, two things that she loves in the city. Additionally, she credited Brenda Moe-Executive Director of the Art Cinema for showing "Path of the Panther" in March which turned out to be a success in attendance with 137 out of 141 seats filled and it will be brought back during "Earth Month" on Sunday, April 23, 2023 and thanked the City Commission for their partnership which Ms. Moe also echoed the same sentiments. Mr. Anderson congratulated them again on receiving Green certification and acknowledged Mark Trowbridge, President and CEO of Coral Gables Chamber of Commerce for his continued support as the city and its businesses strive toward sustaining and keeping the city beautiful for current and future generations. He then presented Ms. Ebbert and Ms. Moe with their plaque.

Attachments: Proclamation

Mayor Lago introduced Agenda Item A-2 Presentation of a Proclamation declaring March 2023 as "Women's History Month" in Coral Gables and Commissioner Anderson read the proclamation, but before doing so, she reflected on the high percentage of men versus women when she was sworn in as an attorney in 1987, and in the past week having attended the Chambers Businesswomen of the Year event in which she received an award, she noticed that there was an 80/20 percent women versus men and reflected that was how it felt for women then, when they started out as the minority and thankfully today there is a lot of support from the community promoting young women to become all they can be. Raquel Elejabarrieta, Director Human Resources & Labor Relations/Risk Management thanked the City Commission on behalf of all the strong women leadership in the city for their support, how fortunate it is to work in a city where there is diversity at all levels of government, female empowerment particularly with inclusivity and diversity beginning with the elected officials and City Manager to pursue all opportunities, ensuring that women voices are heard and they have a seat at the table.

- A.-3. 23-5487 Presentation of a Proclamation declaring April 2023 "World Autism Acceptance Month" in Coral Gables.

Attachments: Proclamation

Mayor Lago introduced Agenda Item A-3 and Commissioner Anderson read the proclamation regarding declaring April 2023 "World Autism Acceptance Month" in Coral Gables and Raquel Elejabarrieta, Director -Human Resources and Labor Relations/Risk Management stated that April is autism acceptance month which emphasizes the need for public awareness to promote acceptance, celebrate differences and to be more inclusive of autistic individuals, gave statistics and highlighted the city's involvement each year in promoting same. Nick Chang, Transition Specialist-Miami-Dade County Schools (MDPS) assigned to Project Victory was selected to accept the City's proclamation on autism. Project Victory is a program developed by MDCPS which prepares children with disabilities for financial, personal, social, and independent functioning through the acquisition of employability and social skills essential for success in the workforce. The city is hosting Project Victory during the 2022-2023 school year and have nine individuals working at City Hall and in Development Services. Ms. Elejabarrieta, accompanied by Mr. Chang, asked Mary Palacio-Pike who is a member of the City's Disability Affairs Advisory Board and an advocate for individuals with autism, to join her at the podium. Ms. Pike thanked and congratulated Mr. Chang on behalf the city's Disability Advisory Affairs Board for all he does as well as Yvette Finney who has been a teacher in Coral Gables High School for 20 years training these individuals and thanked principal Tony Ullivarri for his support. As part of the autism month celebration Coral Gables Museum will host Coral Gables High School, Ponce Middle School and other organizations during the month of April with an exhibition recognizing the skills that the diverse community has and invited the City Commission. Mr. Chang thanked Ms. Elejabarrieta and Ms. Pike for being instrumental in starting the program in the city as well as the City Commission for their support, and that he was honored to receive the proclamation and it shows how much the city appreciates the unique talents and skills of individuals with autism and that is evident because one of the students has gained employment with the city, and the city is truly making a difference in the lives of these individuals. Mayor Lago stated that he met with the student who was employed and how excited he was. He considers these students treasures and reflects on how wonderful it feels every day to be greeted by them when entering City Hall and they bring a smile to your face which is a blessing. He thanked Mr. Chang and Crystal Academy Ms. Pike. Director Elejabarrieta stated that Brandon Talavera is the receptionist in the Human Resources Department answering telephones and is doing an excellent job and thanked Mr. Chang for preparing him for that role.

Mayor Lago introduced Agenda Item A-4 and Commissioner Cason read the proclamation regarding declaring April 2023 as "Earth Month" in Coral Gables. Matthew Anderson, Assistant Director for Mobility & Sustainability/Public Works was joined by Solanch Lopez, marketing Manager/City Manager's Office and Marlin Ebbert, Chairwoman/City's Sustainability Advisory Board and Coral Gables Art Cinema regarding this item. Mr. Anderson thanked the City Commission and gave special thanks for their support over the years as well as thanked out-going Vice Mayor Mena and Commissioner Cason. Additionally, they continue to be steadfast in preservation of their environment for current and future generations which is reflected in the programs and polices the city has implemented through its Sustainability Board and the "Keep Coral Gables Beautiful" program and because of the successes of the program earth month seems to start earlier and earlier each year and he then listed the many activities. Ms. Lopez stated that Mr. Anderson's listing of activities also coincides with the Great American Clean-up program and the "Keep Coral Gables Beautiful" in the month of April. The city was named "Affiliate of the Month" through "Keep America Beautiful". Ms. Ebbert reflected on bringing the program to the city about six years ago in April as earth week which is now earth month and how the program has grown in the number of activities, and she is delighted. Ms Lopez then listed the prize winners. Mayor Lago thanked Mark Trowbridge, CEO and President Coral Gables Chamber of Commerce for always being a partner to the city, Clutch Burger, and Naked Farmers for their partnership in the community and he vowed to continue contributing his personal monies towards the event and thanked everyone. Ms. Ebbert thanked Reverend Hedy Collver of First United Methodist Church of Coral Gables where she a church member for their continued support and partnership in allowing the city to use their parking lot for the city's yearly recycle program. Mayor Lago also thanked the church for their partnership.

Mayor Lago introduced Agenda Item A-5 Congratulations to Officer Kristopher Clute, recipient of the City of Coral Gables "Officer of the Month Award," for the month of January 2023 and Police Chief Hudak made the presentation. Police Chief Hudak stated that on January 23, 2023, Officer Clute who is a senior field training officer responded along with his trainee Officer Juan Trujillo to 10900 Old Cutler Road regarding a suspicious nude male mumbling unintelligibly about being in Cuba and needing assistance. Using Facial recognition, the Criminal Investigation Unit was able to assist with identifying the individual. The information obtained was that this individual was reported missing since December 27, 2022. He was then transported to Larkin Hospital and his next of kin notified. In another incident, Officer Clute on January 24, 2023, and his trainee Officer Juan Trujillo noticed while responding to a complaint on 400 S. Dixie Highway (Chicken Kitchen), because of his keen observation skills he witnessed two individuals doing a drug transaction which led to both individuals being arrested. This nomination was made by Sergeant Williams and the nomination committee, and he is a coaches coach currently working with the University of Miami Baseball team and is someone who continues to train and mentor young officers. Police Chief Hudak then presented Officer Clute with his award plaque. Upon accepting his award, Officer Clute thanked the City Commission, Chief Hudak, Sergeant Williams for nominating him and his senior staff. Mayor Lago congratulated and thanked Officer Clute on behalf of the City Commission stating that the city is blessed to have him on the police department, and he is appreciated for all his hard work.

L. DISCUSSION ITEMS

Mayor Lago: Do you have any comments before we adjourn.

Commissioner Menendez: Yes, I do. My image is ready? There you go. In sequence since we're not meeting until after, well the second Tuesday in May, I assume. Miracle Theater, the next blockbuster movie is the Avengers Endgame, April 30th, that's a Sunday at 5 p.m. It's the second largest grossing movie of all time. It has all your super hero friends coming together to fight forces of evil, sounds like Commission meeting sometimes, but yes, it's a great movie, and bring the family, kids; and again, its fun to see these movies on the big screen instead of just the TV at home, and trust me, I've seen that movie and you hear the audience reaction at the climatic key moments, it sounds like you're at a Super Bowl. The crowd, the audience really gets into that excitement. The next one please. Second image is it ready? - there it is. Thank you. At the Gables Art Cinema, and by the way, both movies are free. May 6th, classic, perhaps one of the greatest classic movies, Casablanca, in black and white, with Humphrey Bogart and Ingrid Bergman and Claude Rains. Free movie, free popcorn, free soda, and if you like beer even at noon and you want it, we'll throw it in, but I already heard people want to go see this movie, so by all means we got two movies before the next Commission meeting and feel free to come and enjoy classics.

Commissioner Anderson: Thank you.

Mayor Lago: Thank you for doing that Commissioner, by the way, I appreciate you. Commissioner.

Commissioner Anderson: Nothing to add, other than April 16th, it's the Girl Scouts, if you guys want to peek in and see what the Girl Scouts have been up to, 1100 freeze, butterfly garden, a tree-fold design, and removal of lots of invasives and you can see the peacocks.

Mayor Lago: Vice Mayor.

Vice Mayor Mena: You're going to like this actually. If they could queue up. Lina has been working, Lina and Gabby and others have been working really hard on the flag program. I think you guys have a queue of the actual website as well. This is currently here in City Hall, but its going to be moved to the Public Safety Building, and then on our website, you're going to be able to order a flag that's been flown over City Hall, and you can either just buy the flag or you can buy it in this nice container, which they found. Anybody who's interested they'll be able to pay for it right there. I think it's something cool that you can do, frankly when you go to things, as Mayor, you can like gift it to people who are visiting from other countries, whatever. I just think it's a cool kind of thing similar to the Capitol program that they have in Congress and in Tallahassee as well. So that's finally up and running. I told Lina, please get it done by my last meeting and she's been hustling ever since, so I appreciate Lina's help, it's been fantastic and really did a great job on this, and this is up and operational. So that's it.

Commissioner Anderson: Fantastic.

Mayor Lago: Vice Mayor, one of your many accomplishments my brother, congratulations. I have two things. First off, I have something I want to queue up, photo. We have an interested community here, colleague, a picture that I sent to Billy. This is on Brickell. This is a very, very famous watchmaker called F. P. Journe, they make about 900 watches a year for boutique, I don't own one of their watches, hopefully one day I will, but I had the privilege of meeting the watch designer and these are some of the most complicated exquisite watches in the world, you can look up the brand. We hit it off. We were having a conversation and he said that he would love nothing more than to put one of these giant clocks in the city, and if you look around you can see these clocks in other major cities throughout the world. I thought it would be something beautiful to have on Miracle Mile somewhere. He would pay for all of it. It lights up at night, very tasteful, beautiful watch.

Commissioner Anderson: I love it.

Commissioner Menendez: Yes, very nice.

Mayor Lago: By the way, these watches range from $15,000 up to $2 million dollars. They give a lot of watches for charity, and they auction off these watches for charity and they are very high end, everything is handmade. He would like to donate this to the city if the city's interested and we can put it somewhere. Somewhere on Miracle Mile, I think it would be a nice tasteful touch, lit up on Giralda maybe, it would be something beautiful, and I think it would be, again, just another classy touch to the city that would set us apart from other cities here in South Florida. If you're interested, we have to do a resolution to move forward.

Commissioner Menendez: Yes. Make the motion.

Commissioner Anderson: Second.

City Clerk Urquia: All in favor.

All: Aye.

City Clerk Urquia: Thank you.

Mayor Lago: I think it's really cool. The second thing I wanted to talk about, and I wanted to, again, I can't say this enough, feel bad sometimes because I call on her team basically every day, three, four, five times a day. I can't say enough good things about Suramy Cabrera and her team and what she's doing down there in regard to the Development Services Department. They have just an immense amount of stress on a daily basis where they are dealing with Code Enforcement, they are dealing with BOA, they are dealing with permitting, people who are willing to start changing their life. What do I mean by changing their life? You've been waiting years, you've been budgeting, you've been dealing with architects, engineers, contractors and you are just waiting to get your project started and it's going through the process. I want to give you some facts which I think is important, because I want to take this opportunity since I gave some incredible statistics last time during the Mayor's Comments. I wanted to follow up regarding Development Services, it's important. We've got to put facts in place, not deal with hyperbole or deal with falsehoods that are spread throughout. The Development Service team continues to work hard and is clearing any backlog that exist. Just since our last meeting two weeks ago, we have reduced overdue reviews by 30 percent. We have 175 overdue and many of these are structural. The good news is that there is a new staff member joining the team for structural reviews. The Building Permitting process has an average of 950 reviews at any given time. There is a schedule provided to residents and businesses so that they know how long the review will take. For example, there is a 48-hour deadline for windows and a ten-day deadline for interior residential remodel. Due dates are automatically set by scope of work and all permits require simultaneous reviews, except for structural. Development Services permitting is up to date, and as I said, there is a light on the horizon since a new staffer is coming on board. Additionally, the county passed on first reading, an ordinance that revises the licensing requirements for plan reviewers. Our city, both the City Manager and our Development Services Director, Suramy Cabrera, played a key role in this revision. They participated along with other building officials to improve the county ordinance. This ordinance will now revise licensing to better match the licensing and experience requirements for reviewers, very important to note, without compromising safety. And I'm sure that once this ordinance is adopted it will expedite the process. This is excellent news and there is an additional tool for residents coming to visit the Development Services Center. We have Que Minder App making it easy to know how long the wait will take. Our stats this past week showed that the average wait time is two to four minutes, and Que Minder is real time. Anyone can check wait times during office hours on our website. To further assist our residents and improve the customer experience, all reviews have daily morning walk-in hours. During this time, anyone can come to meet with the reviewers. Residents just sign in on any of the tables in the lobby and staff is notified that someone is waiting. Of course, sometimes the wait times can take longer, especially when visitors come in with several permits, such as with a permit runner. Statistics show that while our residents only line, the average wait time is one minute, and service time is five minutes. Permit runner service times can range to well over an hour. Even considering this, wait times are down to three minutes on average. ___ has launched last week and residents can easily report code issues. Code Enforcement can review complaints received through the system and we are in the process of being fully staffed with one new Code Officer on board. I want to say thank you to the Manager for your attention on this matter. Your whole team has been working incredibly diligently. I want to thank Suramy; Suramy, you're a champion. You always attack everything with a smile, and I know you have the world on your shoulders. So, I just want to say thank you for that. Keep your head up, because you're doing an incredible, incredible job, amazing. I'm in the business so I understand what you're dealing with every single day, so I just want to say thank you for everything that you do, and it's a blessing to have you here in the city. Before I adjourn, I want to say to the Vice Mayor, to Mayor Cason, I wish you the best. I just want you to know that I'll be calling you a lot. I will be asking for your guidance, now that I can speak to you about issues that are on the Commission floor. I wish you God speed, much success, and it has been one of the greatest privileges of my life to work with both of you. I love you both a lot.

Vice Mayor Mena: Thank you.

Mayor Lago: Thank you. Thank you all.
