

Florida Butterfly Orchid

Left: Flowers of the Florida butterfly orchid (Encyclia tampensis). In South Florida the species blooms from spring through autumn in a variety of colors, including yellow, pink and white. Right: Florida butterfly orchid replanted on an oak tree in South Florida.

Cowhorn Orchid

Flowers of the cowhorn orchid (Cyrtopodium punctatum). In South Florida the species bears large branches of flowers in springtime.

Cockleshell Orchid

Left: Dollar orchid (Prosthechea boothiana), flowering in South Florida during the summer, fall and winter.
Right: The cockleshell orchid (Prosthechea cochleata), a widespread Caribbean species, flowers year-round.

Seedlings in the Lab

