

THE CITY OF
CORAL GABLES PRESENTS

VENICE
IN THE GABLES

2018
A PUBLIC ARTS INITIATIVE

History

EXCERPT, ORD. 454 & 3205

Mooring piles shall be Venetian type, painted and ornamentally capped.

Venetian Mooring Piles were incorporated into the early designs of the City, most notably as canal markers to delineate waterfront property and as part of the Venetian Pool design.

Mooring Piles were required to be Venetian style by ordinance in 1945 and lastly by ordinance in 1996.

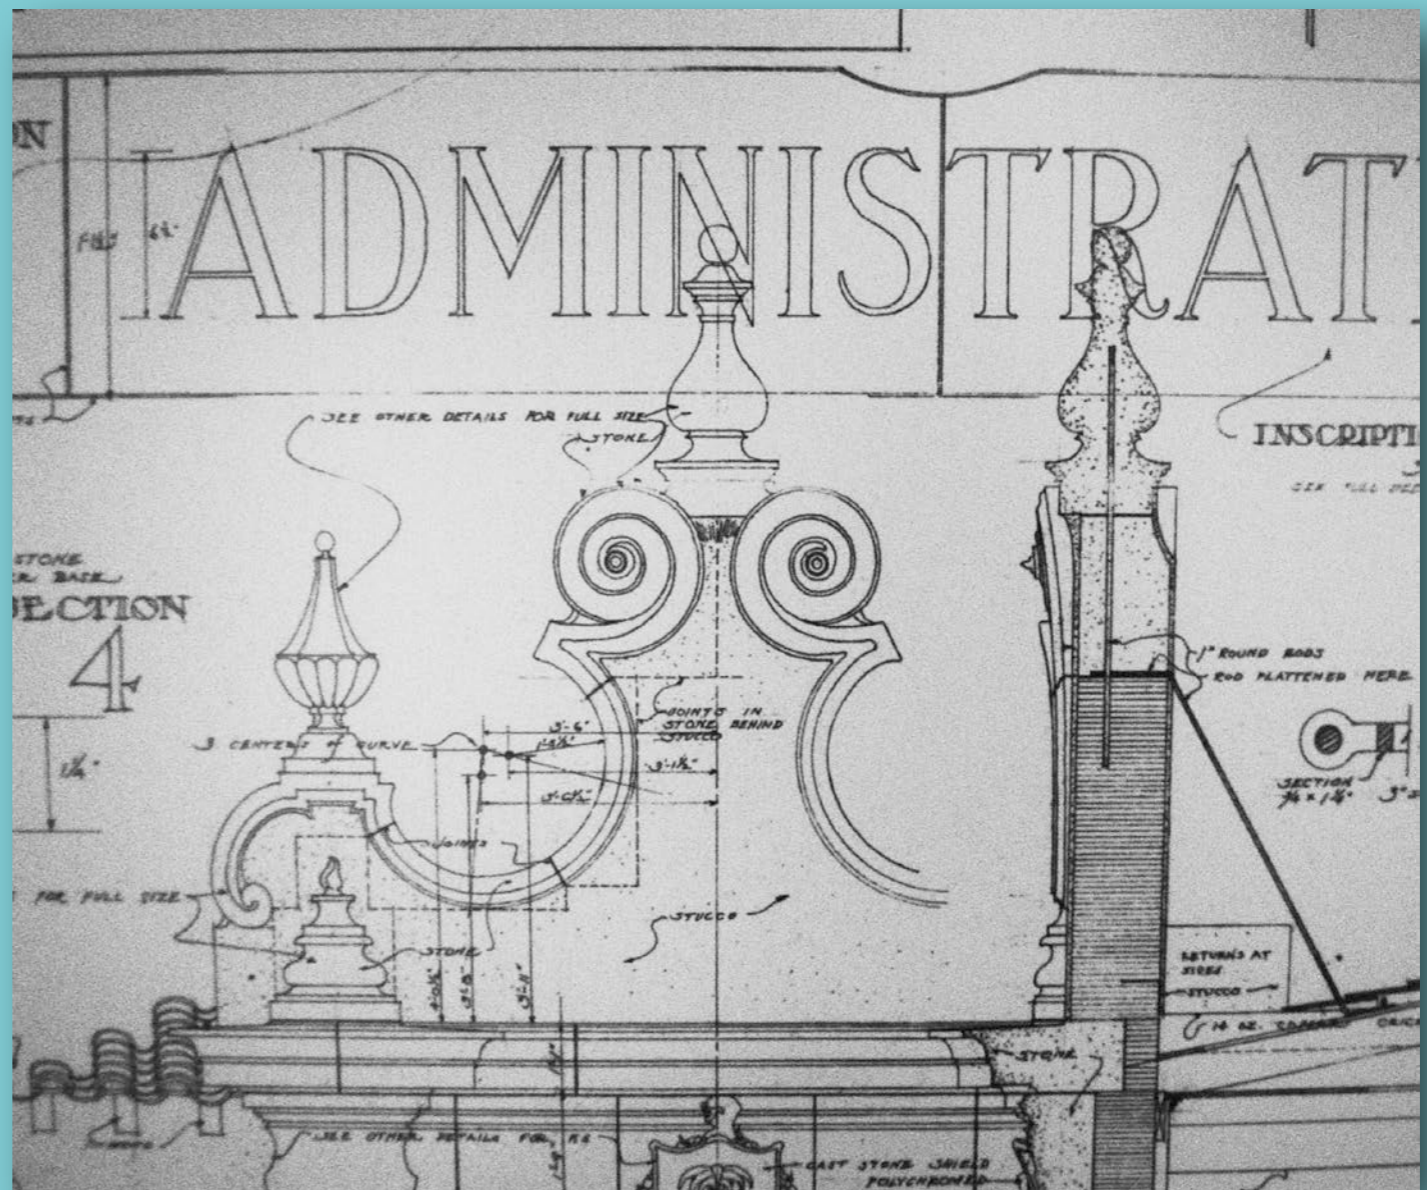

VENETIAN POOL C. 1925

Fishbaugh, W. A. (William Arthur), 1873-1950. Visitors by footbridge at the Venetian Pool in Coral Gables.

The Project

PROVEN SUCCESS

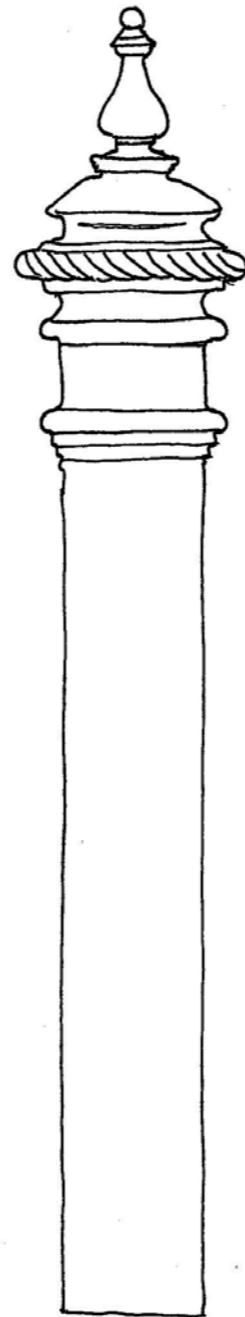

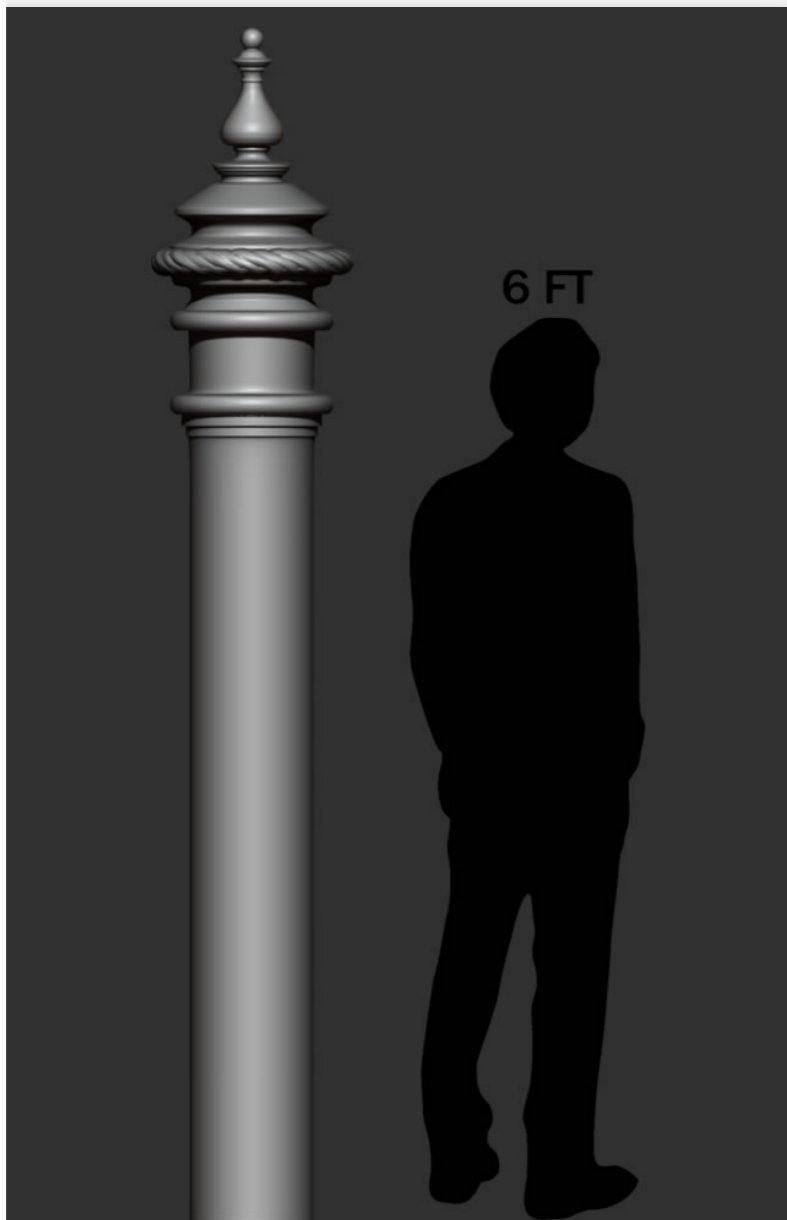

Artists and art lovers around the country continue to celebrate their communities with light-hearted renditions of a similar iconic image: Cows in Chicago (kicking it off!), Roosters in Little Havana, Peacocks in Coconut Grove, Manatees in South Miami, and the beloved Flamingos in Coral Gables.

And now,
our treasured Venetian Mooring Post (Paline).
