Michael joined Morgan Keegan in 2005, now Raymond James, and shortly after, joined the Bermont Advisory Group. As a partner, Portfolio Manager and Accredited Asset Management Specialist, Michael works with Peter Bermont in developing and executing the overarching portfolio management theses as well as company specific investment ideas.

Michael has a bachelor's degree in International Economics and master's degree in International Business from the University of Florida. Having studied in both Italy and France, his academic background combined with his global perspective result in a unique understanding of the interconnectivity of worldwide commerce.

Michael is committed to effecting positive change in the local community. He currently serves as a Trustee of History Miami and an executive committee member of the United Way Young Leaders. He is also a former board member, past vice president and treasurer of JCI Coconut Grove.

Michael was born and raised in South Florida. Today, he lives in Coral Gables with his wife Susana and his son Benjamin.
