WHEREAS, merchants along the 100 Block of Giralda Plaza (a.k.a., “Restaurant Row”) have experienced unique challenges as a result of construction of the streetscape project, which resulted in the closure of the street for an extended period of time; and

WHEREAS, the City committed to initiating or funding various marketing activities in an effort to attract patrons to Giralda Plaza during and immediately following construction, or as an alternative in lieu of those commitments, to provide a grant equal to the cost of those activities (see correspondence provided herein as Exhibit A); and

WHEREAS, the Coral Gables Business Improvement District (“BID”), through its Giralda Plaza Committee (“Committee”) composed of the Plaza’s merchants and property owners, accepted the City’s alternative offer to provide a one-time monetary grant in an amount not to exceed $125,000, contingent on an additional BID match of $25,000, for a total marketing budget of $150,000; and

WHEREAS, the BID has proposed a conceptual marketing plan for Giralda Plaza, provided herein as Exhibit B, which provides a general breakdown of expected activities; and

WHEREAS, Staff recommends approval of this one-time grant to supplement the BID and merchants’ Giralda Plaza marketing activities, to be utilized by the BID as the Committee’s fiscal agent on an incremental and reimbursable basis for marketing activities pre-approved by the City.
