Youth Center Supervisor Carlos Pichardo began his report by going over the successful events we had over the Memorial Day weekend. On Saturday May 29th we had our first annual Coral Gables Family Literacy Festival that turned out somewhere between 1200-1500 event goers. Highlights to the event include a Scholastic Book fair, book readings, petting zoo, food trucks, resource vendors, and much more. We plan on having the event again next year. The other event that took place was the Memorial Day Remembrance Ceremony hosted at the War Memorial Youth Center. Staff and city officials spoke during the ceremony.

We continued with the director's report with going over the upcoming Parks and Recreation e-newsletter. Items that were brought up were the upcoming summer camp programs, Learn to Swim, Tennis and Golf camps. The board was also informed a new Director of Coaching was hired for soccer at the Youth Center. Tryouts have already taken place and will begin programming in the Fall.

The board was also notified that the July Fourth event at the Biltmore will not be taken place this year.
