Description: The City of Coral Gables is governed by a Commission-Manager form of government. Within this framework, the City's residents elect a 5-member City Commission charged with providing community leadership and developing policies to guide the City Administration's delivery of services. The Commission appoints the City Manager, who serves as chief administrator of the City and ensures that the Commission's policies are properly executed. Coral Gables' City Commissioners are elected to 4-year, staggered terms and the Mayor is elected to a 2-year term. City-wide elections are held the second Tuesday in April in odd-numbered years.
